The Headmaster: Mr. P.M. Moyes

TWENTY FIVE YEARS

Twenty five years ago, in February 1951, Mr. P.M. Moyes took up his appointment as Headmaster of the School. To mark this occasion two senior students, Jonathon Silberstein and David Joske sought an interview . . .

I have to remind you that anything you say may be taken down and used as evidence against you.

People say that to me quite often . . .

When you took the position of Headmaster 25 years ago what were your objectives?

I suppose the thing I hoped to do was to create a school where young people could learn to think for themselves... the thought of turning people out in a particular mould horrified me and horrifies me still. I hoped to create a community where there was tolerance and understanding of the needs of other people, an environment where there was a real interest in learning and a love of it and where the students could come to appreciate the problems of the world.

Are these still your objectives now or is the present machinery such that no further change is necessary to fulfil those objectives?

No, I think we've got a long way to go. I think academically we have achieved a certain environment and I think that can be supported by the achievements of students over the years. I am deeply concerned at what little progress we appear to have made when it comes to tolerance and understanding of other people but then I think we're caught up in a community which places more emphasis on material things than it did 25 years ago and there is less self restraint.

How would you go about promoting this greater degree of tolerance?

I think we've got to put in front of them what other people believe and why they believe it...I think a lot of the intolerance comes from people who don't really believe anything at all.

Would isolation from this materialistic community help?

No, I think that in order to promote tolerance of other people we must bring other people into the school. This is why we have guest speakers, for example. We also allow parents, Old boys and outside organisations to use our facilities, and this is one way the school can become more a part of the community. I think that as a result parents have been taking more interest in the school. It is clear however, that in some cases there is one set of values at home and a different set at school.

Is there evidence that confrontation has increased tolerance?

We deliberately situated the Special Education Centre where it is in the Senior School so that students would be exposed to it, and they have shown a willingness to accept it: there is very little teasing of its students.

Isn't the fact that the school is not co-educational a case of the school isolating its students from the school?

I think there is a place in the community for schools which are very diverse. There ought to be in the community schools which are small, large, single sex, co-educational progressive schools, traditional schools; I think all of them have a place. The day that I will be happy is when the government de-zones schools so that if I want to send my child to a particular high school then there is nothing to prevent me. The point which would interest me is whether the school was interested in the student as a person.

Now as far as co-education here is concerned; it has been considered by Council several times and no doubt will be considered in the future but the research evidence to date indicates that academically, the single sex school is more effective than the co-educational school. This of course does not take into account the social aspects. I think it is very largely immaterial whether or not the school is co-educational if it is a day school in the metropolitan area. If it is a boarding school and it is isolated there may be difficulties. But in the metropolitan area I think segregated boarding schools can be managed provided there is constant contact with other schools.

Certainly I would say that in the buildings we have put up in the last ten years, if there were a decision later on to become co-educational it would present little difficulty.

For all the modern educational innovations such as film, videotape, overhead projectors, language laboratories and so on, do you think the student of today is better educated?

I think he is probably better informed or capable of being better informed because it is easier to get concepts across...I would agree of course that there are people who would probably get along just as well without them...but even those are helped by the good use of aids. I am thinking more particularly of films or transparencies where you can demonstrate something scientific, geographical, historical and so on, and you can do it much more quickly. However, teachers need to be trained to use them effectively and the aids must be readily accessible.

As for the language laboratory I think it is very useful in the hands of a teacher who really wants to use it and who feels it is a very good tool. But in the hands of somebody else it would be a waste of money. For instance, I would only provide overhead projectors to the members of staff who really want to use them.

Let me get it straight. What really matters is that there are good teachers who are interested in learning and in motivating and stimulating their students. All the aids in the world will not transform a poor teacher into an effective one. Indeed, the selection of staff is surely the most important task of a Headmaster.

CAPTAIN OF SCHOOL

What does one write in the "Captain of School's Space"? It is dangerously easy to feel like a protege of Kirwin Ward. The difference is that you realise your audience will probably grace your writings with about one tenth the attention. Only a minority of Year 12 students will get around to reading this work in the near future. Most of us will be only too eager to cast off any reminders of the recent exams and the five years leading up to them in a system many feel too restrictive. A few perhaps will glance back at this Mitre in a decade or so in a moment of nostalgia and if this "disease" grasps us too firmly, we might even join the Old Boys Association!

However many will cleanse themselves of the school as quickly and efficiently as possible.

What is being rejected by these students? Is it the feeling of being too tightly governed; of having no chance to argue back; of learning by the clock the same facts as so many others: Can this be avoided?

The school tries to alleviate the situation by offering a diverse education. 1976 has seen further steps in the right direction. The introduction of more avenues of diversification; clubs, services, activities, extra sports and subject combinations certainly helps.

The school is of course economically and logistically restricted in the subjects it can offer. But there is room for improvement in other areas. The Headmaster speaks of a constant attempt to create a school community and incoming prefects always resolve to do something about the "spirit". But what can be done?

It is a common misconception that something can be offered to interest all students. It can't. However, the majority are more likely to find interests and get involved, if and only if, they don't feel dictated to: We must, and I speak as a student, feel more fully in control of our situation. Increased student representation seems to be the answer. In this regard our prefect system can be improved. It is seen too much as another arm of authority. The word "prefect" has immediate connotations of discipline. No doubt a necessary function but not one which is acceptable in its present form. We know of course the ultimate answer is self discipline but like all ideals it is probably impossible to attain fully in the school situation. However, if the majority of students can be made to feel that they have some hand in formulating rules and in applying them then the simple phenomena of peer group pressure, begins to operate and the necessary discipline is achieved.

Boys will be boys and learning what is acceptable and what is not is all part of our education. Boys being boys, the occasional act of irresponsibility will occur and should be condemned. What must be avoided is the undue focussing of attention on this aspect of behaviour so that it is disproportionately enlarged.

At present the prefect system is being examined. The future looks bright for a more equitable arrangement next year. Something akin to an all-years Student Representative Council is in the air and hopefully this wider representation will help to eradicate the need to focus on constraints. We must not be negative!

SWIMMING AND LIFESAVING

For the first time it was decided to combine the school House Sports with the Individual Swimming Championships and due to the numbers competing, it turned out to be a successful and very exciting carnival. Fine performances were given by Brian Rillstone, who swam well in the U/16 Freestyle and Butterfly events. David Huntley and Andrew King dominated their age groups by winning all their respective events.

The Individual Champions were U/13, A. King, U14 D. Huntley, U/15 P. Hanlon, U/16 B. Rillstone, Open M. Bingemann.

The final results in the House Competition were Romsey who ran out decisive winners followed by Wolsey with Walters and McClemans bringing up the rear.

After the House Sports the swimming squad got down to serious training for a carnival against M.L.C. and the University Club. This event was used as a warm up for the Quads. the following week.

The Quads. were held at Wesley which turned out to be a small disaster as far as Christ Church was concerned with us sharing the minor places in most events with St. Louis. The final placings were Wesley, Trinity, Christ Church and St. Louis finishing last.

The failure at the Quads did not dishearten the team — in fact we all returned to training with the determination to redeem ourselves. After a week of solid training we all felt a little more confident about the Inters.

Hale dominated the Inters, as expected, with Scotch who put up a strong challenge to finish a mere 8 points behind Hale.

We saw some fine swimming from Peter Hanlon and Dean Butler who won the 1st and 2nd divisions of the U/15 50m. backstroke.

After competing for 6th place with Trinity we finally accepted the wooden spoon with grace and dignity. The final placings were Hale 414, Scotch 406, Wesley 251, Aquinas 220, Guildford 201, Trinity 167 and finally Christ Church with 148 points.

In conclusion I would like to thank our coach Mr. Bowker for his untiring efforts.

Mark Bingemann Year 12

It is in two to three years from now that we will reap the benefits of their efforts. It is worth noting at this point that as a result of the work put in by boys and staff, we practically have a permanent grip on two trophies awarded by the W.A. Branch of the Royal Life Saving Society, The Hanrahan Trophy (Resuscitation) and the Bell Trophy (Independent Boys School making greatest contribution to Life Saving). These are once again on the shelves of our Trophy Cabinet.

The Inter House Life Saving Carnival, held late in first term, was once again a successful exercise. It did prove the true worth of Life Saving as a team activity, when McClemans showed superiority throughout in all team events, to win the Carnival comfortably. The effort was all the more praiseworthy when one considers that McClemans have no outstanding swimmers, for they finished second last in the Inter House Swimming.

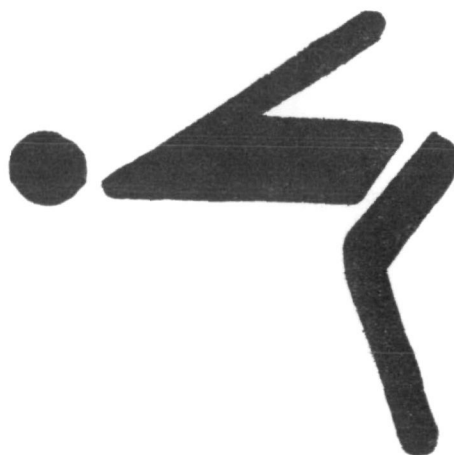

The Open Champion Life Saver was Mark Bingemann. His overall strength in freestyle and breaststroke were the telling factors at the end of a gruelling event.

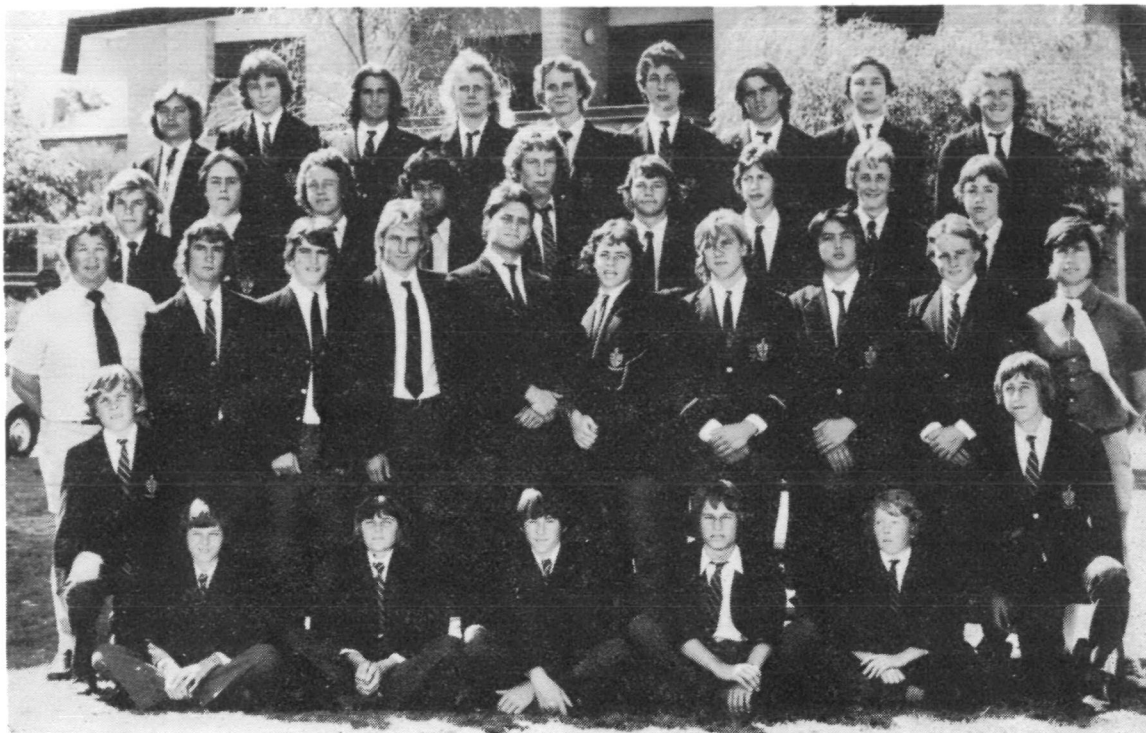

Once again we were represented by Open and Under Age teams in the Annual State Championships conducted by the Royal Life Saving Society at Beatty Park. All members of the team performed creditably without winning an event.

Mr. D.C. Bowker.

LIFESAVING

Lifesaving begins with the opening of the swimming pool in the last week of October. The duties and responsibilities of all qualified lifesavers, then carries through to the close of the season at the end of April. Meanwhile the activities and learning processes by the younger students continues under the guidance of two dedicated Physical Education Teachers, Messrs. Akos Kovacs and Brian Marsland.

Our Darlot Cup season opened with a 30 run victory over Wesley. Luke Holland, Peter Seward and Andrew Haslam all batted well for a time and our total of 156 was enough to enable Richard Breidahl (5 for 22) and Ross Wharton (3 for 16) to have our opponents all out shortly after tea. This match proved to be our last Darlot Cup success until the final round. The home game versus Aquinas was washed out by rain: Hale defeated us outright by 10 wickets: Trinity beat us by 45 runs on the first innings: Scotch thrashed us by an innings and 77 runs; and so, it was with some relief that we made 250 against Guildford, Robert Donaldson (49) and Peter Moore (67) both batting extremely well, and beat them by 78 runs due to some very persistent and accurate bowling by Brad Ethell, David Stephenson, Moore and Breidahl.

As for our three defeats, it was the spin of Barrymore and S. Marsh rather than the pace of Gepp that was our undoing at Hale, although Brian Rillstone batted well twice. In the Hale innings of 180, G. Marsh and Aitken scored 137 and, had an early catch or two been held, the story might have been very different, for Breidahl (6 for 50) and Wharton bowled extremely well. Against Trinity, Ethell bowled 24 overs, 11 maidens and took 4 for 34 and, if our middle order batsmen had been able to use their feet against the well flighted spin of Harries (8 for 62), we could have won, for Donaldson, Joe Fisher and Richard McNeil gave us a good start and Seward and Stephenson caused our tail to wag. Scotch outplayed us, although Seward and Stephenson between them took 8 for 72 in an innings of 9 for 231. As for our batting, Moore reached double figures twice and Holland made 17 not out in the first innings and batted 2 hours for 25 in the second - for the rest, the least said the better.

Peter Seward was an extremely astute captain. His fielding was outstanding, and his batting improved markedly. Peter Moore, the vice-captain, only regained his form with the bat late in the season but, when in full flow, is a magnificent driver of the ball. Richard Breidahl, for the second year in succession, won the bowling trophy. He has a very deceptively late inswing and bowls with his head. Robert Donaldson has tremendous potential as a batsman and, coupled with his determination, should prove a tower of strength in the 1966-7 season. Luke Holland is an extremely good wicket-keeper and often made runs when they mattered. Joe Fisher and Richard McNeil are correct batsmen who should make many runs. Brian Rillstone, Andrew Haslam and Clive Turner are batsmen with gaps in their armoury, but who could prove their worth if these are filled. Brad Ethell and Ross Wharton bowled very well on occasions and David Stephenson came into the side for the last three matches and showed great promise in all departments of the game. In the final match, Andrew Viner played a good innings and so did Russell McKay.

I should like to thank Messrs. Tooke and Fisher for their great assistance in coaching and Mrs. Seward and other mothers for their unfailing support of the inner man. Rae Deeley proved an outstandingly helpful scorer and there is no doubt that, with the continued support of such people as these, our 1976/7 XI could well achieve the ultimate goal — the Darlot Cup for the first time — for we have 9 old colours available and several other cricketers of similar talent.

As for the other teams in the Senior School, the 2nd XI, coached by Mr. Pate and skippered by Robert Fletcher, had an excellent season, winning most of its matches and the Under 16A XI, under Mr. Woollett and Doug Grewar, also did extremely well; a century scored by Clayton Lewis being perhaps the highlight. The 3rd XI with Mr. Blackwood and the Under 16B with Mr. London and Wayne Sheppard won more matches than they lost and a Thursday cricket group, under Mr. Woodall, flourished.

The Middle School P.S.A. competition continues into third term, but after the first term matches, the 9th year A XI under Mr. House and Bill Breidahl is unbeaten and the other teams have been more than holding their own.

A Sound Season

This year for the first time we had a 1st VIII, thus giving the opportunity for two extra players to represent the school. From last year's team we had two members returning in Gary Hicks and Phillip Wall who were seeded Nos. 1 and 2 respectively. They paired with each other in doubles and put up a good showing against some very talented players from other schools in these positions.

Our 3rd and 4th seeds, Bruce Clarke and Brian Matthews proved to be very consistent throughout the season with Brian especially establishing himself as a strong singles player while Bruce turned in some strong doubles performances during the season.

Jeffrey Melson, a consistent returner of the ball, enjoyed a successful season with good wins particularly against Wesley and Trinity. Lindsay Kanther also showed some fine form towards the end of the season and played extremely well against Trinity.

Bruce Smith and Tim Haslam played doubles together for most of the season, and with their ability to become good "mates" with their opponents, won most of their matches.

Mark Boyle, who teamed earlier in the season with Brian Matthews in doubles, played a few games and did particularly well against Wesley. Other members, Jeremy Shellabear and Grant Etherington supported the team throughout the season.

Mr. Davies turned a group of lethargic tennis players at the start of the season into a team that combined well with each other by the end of the season. Our thanks go especially to him and also to Mr. Rickey, Mr. Owen, Rev. Dutton and Mr. Draper for their help. Support came too from the many boys interested in tennis. All in all a very successful season.

ROWING

Cox: S.J. Annear, J.S. Battersby, J. Downs, D.G. Lynn, A.J. Cook, J. Oswald, R. Barber, T. Norton, I.D. Hilton.

Changes continued this year in the Boat Club with the departure of Graham Norton, the coach of the First Eight. His record with the Club extends over a period of 16 years, 14 of these, as coach of the Second Eight. His unflagging efforts with his crews, his co-operation with Don Fraser and his high standards, played a large part in the success the Club has achieved in maintaining its Head of the River record. His results in the last 2 years with the First Eight were 3rd and 2nd respectively and the second place, achieved this year, was so nearly a win. With the Second Eight his crews recorded 4 wins and 6 places. Boys who have trained with him were most sorry to see him leave. His dedication to his crews and the efforts he made on their behalf were outstanding and a fine example to all oarsmen.

We are fortunate in having as Graham Norton's successor an old boy and ex member of the Boat Club, Murray McHenry.

Murray McHenry, Robert Jewkes (another old boy) and Jim Battersby are to be congratulated on their selection for the "Kings Cup" Squad.

Maintenance Group

The Boatshed Maintenance Group, as always, attempted to keep the crews well equipped and afloat. Late 1975 saw the replacement of nearly all the oar leathers with new P.V.C. sleeves and the strengthening of the "Fraser" with new ribs. At this stage Mr. Hammond's appearance on the scene to supervise maintenance created a much tighter organisation.

The 1976 Season began and, with the D.H. Fraser available for training, the two McClellans Eights were taken out of commission and given major overhauls. Unfortunately, an unlucky combination of "washes" broke the "Fraser's" back less than a month before the "Head of the River Regatta". However E.A. (Eddie) Cook was called in and the boat was in commission again within 48 hours.

A boat which normally comes under heavy repair each year was, this year, sadly neglected. The "Parry" was officially taken out of service after an active life of about twenty years.

New Boats which appeared in the shed were the Craigie and Queenslea, two tub pairs of somewhat unorthodox design most capably built by E.A. Cook.

David Lynn was responsible for the care of the Outboard Motors and owing to his care and attention there were no serious stoppages. The Club is most grateful to coaches who have assisted during the year and thanks are due to Graham Norton for First Eight, Murray McHenry for Second Eight, A.A. Wilkins for U/16 Eight, A.A. Mountier for First Four and J. Birman for U/16 and Second Four. Master in Charge — A.A. Mountier, Capt. of Boats — J. Oswald, and Vice Capt. of Boats — S—R.V.R. Oddie.

We started the season a scraggy bunch of players, with two members returning from last year's 1st XI, not much skill, a new pair of blue shorts each and a lot of enthusiasm. "Weenie" Sutherland maintained a running commentary on our progress, Rowan Dimmock was ten yards behind everybody else and Smithy was doing his best to keep the opposition score as low as possible.

Halfway through the season we weren't such a scraggy bunch, we still had our blue shorts, we had acquired some skill and teamwork, but had lost a lot of our team spirit and apathy was creeping into our training efforts while the state of the ovals was making us watch the ball very closely. In his frustration Brian Matthews was hitting the ball even harder than usual, Gray Provis was perfecting his chip shot at goals while "Chook" Sedgwick was still having trouble getting inside his opposing wing.

By the end of the season we were a fit bunch of players, our blue shorts had got very wet and muddy, our skill and teamwork had improved tremendously, our enthusiasm and team spirit had returned, our hit and miss forward line was now hitting more times than it missed, in fact we were looking and performing like a good hockey team. Greg Willis was still waiting to get the dream run down the left wing you read about. "Stevo" was still controlling operations from the centre; "Frog" Williams was still practising teeing off from the 16 yard line, Jolyon House was still trying to get back when we were in defence; Peter Prior was showing us how the ex-cross country boys could perform and I was still trying to work out how I became captain. And now the highlights — Smithy's magnificent save of Aquinas' penalty flick deserves an early mention, "Stevo's" penalty flick that won us the match and the fact that Rowan Dimmock lasted the full game made the match against Trinity a memorable one.

Our match against Hotspurs and the discussion afterwards benefited everybody and our thanks must go to them.

Jolyon House's first goal in the second last game was a pleasant moment for everybody and the remarkable improvement in "Chooks" Sedgwick's trapping astounded everybody, most of all Sedgwick; finally there was that magnificent lunch provided by Mrs. Sutherland at the end of the season.

After counting up our wins, draws and losses we ended up in fourth place and most of the credit for our success must go to that man on the side lines who was continually telling us to get the ball out to the right, Mr. House.

Next year's 1st XI has five players returning, so there is a smaller scraggy bunch to begin '77 and I'd like to wish those five players, the scraggy bunch and that man on the sidelines the best of luck for next year.

FOOTBALL

The 1976 season was one of mixed fortunes. We had confidence, a good start and right up to the second last match of the first round we had a chance of reaching the finals.

The first term we had a comfortable win against the Old Boys but in doing so lost a valuable player in Michael Barrett for the rest of the season. Other practice matches saw us develop a rugged style of play which turned out quite successful. This definitely showed in our first game which was against Wesley. In this match Mark Harrison played an extremely good first up game for Christ Church.

Next we played Aquinas and won by a record margin of 75 points. This was due, in part, to extremely high team spirit both before and during the game. Coming on at half time Richard Guinness kicked five goals, while other good performances were given by Peter Seward who was the mainstay of our back line throughout the season and he was ably supported by Peter Moore and Russell McKay.

Our game against Hale was one of the most important during the season. It proved to be a very tight game throughout and with Hale making fewer errors than ourselves they ran out victors. Mark Lewis made his debut in this game and with his strong play went on to become a valuable player. By this stage both Ross Norrie and Mark Harrison were injured and had joined Michael Barrett as spectators for the rest of the season. Ross was replaced by Peter Dunbar who fitted into the team very well.

In the Trinity match we were slaughtered, the only bright side being the great game played by Peter Connor in the back pocket. This match was followed by the game against Scotch. Although we had a nightmare second quarter, we fought back but unfortunately could not bring off victory. Clive Turner, one of the 'Corrigin Moles' started to show form and in subsequent matches he proved to be an outstanding player. Clayton Lewis also played well and was a consistent and sometimes brilliant performer in other matches.

The Guildford game boosted the team's morale after a sequence of three losses. We won convincingly with Mark Bingemann and Rob Eyres dominating the ruck and centre line players Andy Haslam and Bruce Clarke playing outstanding games. Robert Donaldson, injured the previous week, left the ground at the end of the first quarter and unfortunately could not play again for the season.

Our next game was the first of the final series and playing Aquinas at home we were confident of winning. We allowed Aquinas to break away in the first half but after that with Bruce Smith and Lindsay Kanther playing grand games we were able to fight back and were only 7 points behind with a few minutes to go. Unfortunately, Aquinas scored again and time ran out on us.

We won our final game against Wesley quite easily and so finished in fifth place overall.

We were a very spirited side and never gave in and so made it very hard for any team playing against us — something we should have been pleased with.

Congratulations to Bruce Smith and Lindsay Kanther on gaining Honours. These players performed consistently and together with Mark Bingemann were the backbone of the side. Thanks must also go to Mr. Watkins for bringing together a great side and thanks also to all other coaches of football.

Best of luck to all for next year's competition.

A Year to Rebuild

The first fifteen's performance throughout the duration of this year's season was what one could politely call inconsistent. Ironically the team produced its better rugby against the better sides and its poorer rugby against the poorer sides. Naturally this situation led to our gradual demise from the upper echelons of the table resulting in our final resting place at an unimpressive sixth place.

But Rugby aside, this season was a good one. The team's spirit and attitude was exemplary and although we seldom won by points, I'm sure that on several occasions we achieved moral and spiritual victories over our adversaries. Whilst they succumbed to the dangerous aspirations of power, greed and success we learnt valuable lessons in humility and thus increased the strength of our moral fibre.

Among the many team members who found increased fortitude from our defeats were the talented and congenial Brian Rillstone and the enlightened Gregory Nash. Both of these players obtained places in the Touring State Schoolboys Rugby Team because, no doubt, of their ability to savour the foul taste of defeat. Yet another remarkable player was the stoic Rupert Oddie, who, along with Brian Rillstone, was awarded Rugby Honours.

The rest of the team, myself included, now find it easier to face life's trials and tribulations and can cope with situations that would beat better men. So, try not to judge the First Fifteen by its performance on the playing fields this year, but turn your eyes to the future when there will come a flowering of statesmen and poets from the forward pack whilst the backs will give birth to many fine theologians and philosophers in a new Rugby Renaissance.

The 2nd XV did not really have a successful year, but being true sportsmen they realised it's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game. And, quite frankly, they played terribly.

Still the Seconds never lost spirit throughout the season, such undaunting souls as Neil "never-say-die" Bovenizer battled on till the bitter end.

The Middle School 'A' XV perhaps have given Christ Church some cause to be optimistic about our future chances of success in the Rugby competition.

The "A" team proved to be a talented well-balanced side who often proved to be far superior for their opponents and had an extremely successful season.

I sincerely hope that their scholastic ability matches their Rugby ability so that they do not leave school within the new few years and remain to ensure that we once again regain the Cup we last held in 1964.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1976 Cross Country season was once again a very successful one with Christ church dominating the school's competition.

This year we had some sixty boys competing in the Cross Country competitions and because of this increase in numbers we were able to field two divisions in the competition, a Middle School and a Senior School Division.

We competed against Scotch, Wesley, Guildford and Aquinas, winning all races in both the Senior and Middle School competitions.

We competed against Scotch, Wesley, Guildford and Aquinas, winning all races in both the Senior and Middle School competition.

Although we had a good response to training with only the occasional non-conformer, these races against a small number of schools were not enough for the majority of the runners to really find out what hard competition would be like. Consequently most of the boys that ran in the State School Boys Cross Country Competition did not fare as well as they may have.

Christ Church entered teams in the U/15, U/16 and Open Age groups in the 4 x 1600m relay and the teams race of 6,000 m at the State Championships. All teams ran well, but it was the Open team that finished best, coming second in the Relay and the Team event.

Special mention must go to Duncan Sullivan who was our most outstanding runner, gaining 4th place in the Open teams race and for receiving Honours in Cross Country running.

In closing I would like to thank Mr. Marsland and Mr. Merrells for their unending efforts in coaching the teams throughout the season and I hope that all boys in next year's competition maintain the high standard that they set this year.

John Rodgers, Year 12

ATHLETICS

This year the Athletics team improved on last year's performance but so did the other six teams and thus we ended up a close seventh.

This year we tried a more organised approach to training with some outside coaching from Mr. Lockwood and his staff from the University which produced some outstanding individual results.

We went to the Quads at Scotch with a slight hope of bringing home the Lynn Shield. But as it turned out the team just didn't seem to fire and this lead one to believe that they were saving themselves for the following Saturday's carnival at Perry Lakes. However there were some outstanding individual results. In the Open Competition Mark Bingemann set a new School and Quadrangular record with a 100m run of 11 seconds. Also in the open, John Annear set an inaugural record for the 3,000 m in a "solid" time of 9 m.51 seconds. In the U/17 age group Duncan Sullivan smashed the Quadrangular and School record for the 1500 m. in a fast time of 4 minutes 18.4 seconds. John Sedgwick set a new school high jump record with a leap of 1.81 metres and Richard Dale set a new Quadrangular record in the 110 metres hurdles with a time of 15.5 seconds, just 0.1 seconds outside the School record. The under 16 record cracker was Nigel Forrester who created a new School record and also set an inaugural record for the Quads, in the 400 metres which he ran in a fast time of 53.5 seconds. In the U/16 age group two records were broken, one by the brilliant Ross Clarke in the 1500 metres, with a time of 4 min. 38.4 seconds and the other by Mark Alderson in the high jump in which he cleared 1.64 metres. This jump wiped out yet another long standing record of the versatile R.E. Merrells. Finally in the U/14 age group M. Whitford broke a long standing record in the hurdles in a nippy time of 15.8 seconds.

Then came the Inters where once again there were some very pleasing individual results. The team as a whole tried extremely hard to get out of that last place and to get rid of the wooden spoon. At some stages throughout the day it appeared as if our dream would come true but a poorly run relay let us down, consequently we were last again.

A total of eight wins were recorded by members of our team which was almost three times better than last year. The winners were Mark Bingemann in the Open 110 m. hurdles, Andrew Haslam in the Open 1500 m., Richard Dale in the U/17 110m. hurdles, Duncan Sullivan in the U/17 1500 metres, Clayton Lewis and Nigel Forrester in the U/16 800 metres first and second divisions, Edwin Sinclair in the U/15 100 metres and Ross Clarke U/15 1500 metres. Congratulations to all these boys on a solid job.

Once again the long distance runners dominated the points scored and credit must go to Mr. Marsland for his dedication in the training of these boys. Thanks must also go to all other coaches who gave their time so generously.

A number of athletes went on to compete in the 1976 State School Boys and Girls Championships and those to do well were Duncan Sullivan who won the U/17 3000 metres and came second in the U/17 1500 metres, Ross Clarke who came second in his U/15 1500 metres, John Annear who ran well to get third in the 3000 metres and fourth in the 1500 metres and Richard Dale who was third in his U/17 110 metres hurdles.

We may have been the "wooden spooners" once again but we were far from disgraced and with a little more participation and dedication throughout the school the Christ Church comeback is assured.

THE GYMNAST

A SPECIAL BREED OF CAT!

1976 has again proved to be a highly successful year for the Christ Church Grammar School Gymn Club, despite the "graduation" from the school of the State's top gymnasts. We once again represented the State well in the National Competitions with the State U/16 and U/19 teams consisting entirely of C.C.G.S. gymnasts.

Our record looks as though it will be upheld in the future, for there is a promising squad of Preparatory School and Middle School gymnasts in the making.

The year opened with the selection of the State U/16 squad. The boys competed in Brisbane during the May holidays and re-inforced the School's place on the gymnastic map by coming 3rd. Two members of the team, Scott Isbel and Kurt Zink did exceptionally well in coming 2nd and 4th respectively. Scott joined the school this year and has proved his ability not only in the Nationals but also in the School competition in which he won the U/15 cup. Kurt competed against the senior gymnasts of the school in the Maglagan's (Open) Cup and came second. His achievements this year have been truly remarkable, for only last year he was forced into a wheelchair with plastered legs from knee injuries. The whole Gymn Club is proud of him for his show of courage and will power in overcoming his injuries.

The most exciting event of the year was the School Gymn Competitions. Mr. Kovacs organised an outstanding Physical Education display with the 10C and D forms to open the evening. There was excitement all round as the Preparatory School boys jostled for the Preparatory School Medallion, the Middle School boys competed for the Walker Cup and the Senior School boys battled it out for the MacLagan's Cup. There was also a group — extraordinary this year — two gymnasts in a class of their own. One of them, Zack Stearns, was voted Most Improved Gymnast of the Year.

The U/19 squad that competed in the Nationals at Melbourne during the August holidays proved very successful for Christ Church, since all the members were from our school club. The three who went were — Neil Porter (an Old Boy) who came 3rd, Mike Herman who came 4th and Nick Welch who came 9th.

The School also participated in an extracurricular event this year — the State Association's Walkathon. This was a fantastic success due to the tremendous support not only from the gymnasts but also from the rest of the school. Mr. Kovacs and I extend our thanks to all those who took part.

Special mention must go to Lindsay Nylund who has left Australia to take up a scholarship at Arizona State University, a scholarship he was granted on his gymnastic ability.

Finally, I would like to thank all the parents who donated to the Gymn. Mat Fund (we now have four of the six mats), to Mr. Zahra, Mr. Bowker and the senior boys who ensured the smooth running of the school competitions and last but not least, I would like to thank Mr. Kovacs for his never ending dedication in coaching the boys.

WRESTLING

Free-style Wrestling was introduced as a sport in the school for the first time this year.

Mr. G. Samios, an ex-Olympic wrestler, coached the boys in holds and techniques. Later in first term, Mr. K. Mountaz, an international heavyweight from Pakistan, currently working at the University of W.A. also came in to coach.

Eight boys, ranging from year 1 to year 12, stayed with the sport through the year. They showed promising speed in learning the skills of the sport, once they realised that strength alone was not sufficient to pin an opponent to the mat. The progress made was such that an exhibition of wrestling techniques was able to be put on for Open Day.

Congratulations are due to the boys on their rate of development in the sport and thanks go to Mr. Samios and Mr. Mountaz for assisting so generously and effectively.

Mr. A.L. Pate (Co-ordinator)

BASKETBALL

The 1976 Basketball season provided a welcome alternative to the "Big Three" sports areas. Two games were played against Guildford with each winning one.

Basketball was not high on the status list of School sports and was little more than an after school activity. Even with its obvious lack of prestige there still remained a firm following of supporters, some very talented, others not so talented, but all very keen.

As an after school activity and sport - Basketball is strongly recommended as a going concern for future seasons.

A special thanks must go to our first coach Mr. Arndt and current coach Mr. Weber for their morale boosting efforts during the season. To all those who played and supported us, thanks. A fine effort by every one involved.

Perhaps in the not so far future Basketball will achieve the standing, support and prestige it deserves.

Although not as involved in competition as other sports the rather small squash group had a most enjoyable season with a good mixture of competitive interschool matches and social games.

Our first match of the season resulted in a 3 rubbers to 1 loss but it was a good performance considering we had only started training two weeks before. By our next match against Guildford everyone was playing well and we proved that by winning 17 sets to 16. The week after we again played Guildford but due to four absentees from the team we were quite comfortably beaten.

That marked the end of competition games but we then had two very good social matches against Perth College. Although we tried hard to overcome the distractions, the girls took the honours in the second match. Thanks go to Ross Hurley for organizing the matches.

Finally, I must thank Mr. Merrells for his guidance in after school training sessions and his organization of the interschool matches. He always treated all players fairly and gave everyone equal time on the two courts. It is to his credit that all players improved throughout the season.

CHESS : THE REAL THINK

R. Deeley, D.A. Storer, D.G. Lang, D.R. Archer, Mr. K.W. Hopkins

We warmed up in first term with the Inter-House competition which Wolsey won in both Junior and Senior sections. Pardeep Jayasuriya (Wy) gained 4/4 games and Charles Collin (Wy), Darryl Deeley (Wy), Rae Deeley (Wy), David Wall (R) and Fadzil Curtis (Ws) were undefeated.

In the last five weekdays of the May vacation fifteen Christ Church players took part in the State Junior Championships in the Memorial Hall with the State's best young players. Creditable performances in the Open Section were made by David Storer and Rae Deeley. In the Under 16 Darryl Deeley, Tim Stephenson and Ian Doust showed well and the Under 14 section was contested keenly by Tim Reynolds, Charles Collin and Pardeep Jayasuriya. The results gained meant that the name of Christ Church was inscribed on the Sheard Trophy for the best school for the fourth consecutive year.

The inter school competition had six teams from Christ Church showing that at least 40 players were interested enough to devote time to this. This enthusiasm was well recognised in the Junior League's Competition as was the high standard of some of our players.

The "A" team managed second in the Premier League, despite the fact that Mr. Hopkins' car sometimes proved unequal to the task of transporting us (generally in the middle of busy city intersections).

The "B" team although variable in composition found stalwarts in Peter Herman, Michael Wood and Tim Stephenson. They have managed to reach the semi finals of the Secondary "A" League and will get beyond this. We are confident.

The "C" team (Ross Brennan, Stuart Cole, Michael Ellies and Graeme Smith) competed in one division of the Secondary Reserve League and reached the semi finals.

The "D" team (Daryl Deeley, Glen Myatt, Ian Doust and Michael Brett) competed in another division of the Secondary Reserve League and came third.

The Junior 1 and Junior 2 teams made up from the Middle School struggled very hard against their older and more experienced opponents but to no avail this year. However, their names will appear in this space in future years when the valuable experience will tell. Tim Reynolds and Michael Codd both managed to win 3 games each.

The Garden City Tournament in the September holidays was again a Christ Church dominated event. We had about 20% of the players in a very pleasant allegro tournament in the concourse of this busy shopping centre. Rae Deeley managed a second overall in the tournament and David Storer (6th), David Lang (7th) and Charles Collin (16th) took away age group prizes. The School took away the Boan Shield for the best team effort for the third consecutive year.

In third term the Middle School and Senior School individual championships will be decided to allow players to try out among themselves, since we are well aware of our standing as a school.

WALTERS BOARDING HOUSE NOTES

With the year closing boarders again proved they are the backbone of the school in the sporting fields.

Stars at the Swimming "Inters" this year included, Justin Arnold and Mark Frey with sound efforts coming from "Twig" Forrest and "Ostrich" McRae.

Those to shine on the hallowed wicket during first term included Ross Wharton, Clayton Lewis, Clive Turner, Tilly, Doug Grewar and the two Norries. While making a racquet we saw Bruce Smith and Bruce Clarke, the Goomalling Mongols.

Pulling their weight at the Head of the River, Walters was represented by Rupert Oddie (V/Captain of Boats), Bernie Kuhne, Andy "Red Poll" Boulton, "Basher" and Chris Grylls, with vocal timing coming from "Twig", "Kilometers" Harvey, "Nipper" Forrester and "Muscles", Martin Battersby.

Second term saw the departure of our Housemother, Mrs. Brady and the arrival of a new model, the friendly Mrs. Abbott.

With the rain came the football, and with the football came Walters, stars of the first eighteen. Among them were Bruce Smith (V/Captain), Alan Tillbrook, Clayton Lewis, "Corrigin" Turner, Peter Dunbar, Bruce Clarke and Doug Grewar.

Our commiserations to Ross Wharton and Ross Norrie for their nagging injuries.

On the rugby field we saw good efforts from "Tricky" Rupert Oddie, "Mad" Ian Sanders, Peter "Sleep" Greaves and "Basher" Hills the Moora lad.

While on the hockey pitch Mr. House had the services of Jillian House, Georgina Willis and Peter Petal Prior.

Third Term saw Walters fight back in the House Competition, with good wins in the Cross Country and the House Athletics. A great House effort with good individual efforts coming from John and Tom Rodgers, Ross Clarke, Mark Giblett, Ross Norrie, Willy Atkins, "Lu-Lu", "Basher", "Smithy" and Michael Guest.

Throughout the year the boarders' committee conducted several Quiz Nights and Socials and thanks must go to Bruce Clarke, Rob Crossing, Craig Harvey and Matthew Hawkes for their immeasurable help.

The House was well represented in the Adventure Training Unit with "Mad Ian" Sanders teaching the S.A.S. the Darwin way of cliff roping. Also enjoying "cadets" we had Greg Keay, Kingsley House, Geoff Norrie, "Jibbie" Barrett-Lennard, Phil Herbert and Darren Sadler.

Allan Tillbrook kept the money flowing for House Collections and rumour has it he has been offered a job with the Commonwealth Taxation Department.

In closing off I would like to thank the Assistant Housemasters, Mr. Birman, Mr. Davis and Mr. Porteous for their understanding and help, also special thanks to Mr. Burns for his keen interest and guidance throughout the years. Congratulations to Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Abbott for achieving the impossible task of keeping seventy six boys suitably dressed.

Finally my sincere thanks to the hidden backbone of Walters, The House Prefects, Mark Bateman, Fadzil Curtis, Rupert Oddie, John Rodgers, Tom Rodgers, Bruce Smith, Alan Tillbrook and Nick Vincent.

On behalf of the House I welcome the incoming Mr. London and wish him all the best in his new environment.

McCLEMANS BOARDING HOUSE NOTES

This year, McClemans has done well as a House. This is due to the keen spirit shown by everyone, especially in the team games, no more was this shown than when McClemans reigned supreme in both tug-o-war at the Athletics. Some members of the House have made some outstanding achievements during the year.

Gymnastics saw Mike Lambert finish 21st in the Australian U/16 Championship and also John Barton who was reserve to the State U/16 team. Bill Rees entered the Avon Descent in the single canoe section and did particularly well for his first attempt.

Andy Haslam and Bill Rees received the Bronze and Silver Duke of Edinburgh Award respectively.

Two of the most valuable guys in the House would be "Gus" Hemery and Andrew Marriott who carried out a hard job throughout the year showing the films on Saturday nights.

Ricky Guinness and Willy Jones carried out most of the organization of social activities such as dances and quiz nights which turned out to be a great success.

Kim Thomas is another handy person around the House. He is known as "an electronic brain - cum handyman - cum chief marshal".

Ross Horley also must be mentioned for his help in producing the House photo this year. Brad Roberts, Steve Price and Mike Lambert did a sturdy job organizing the minor games such as volleyball, basketball, softball at which the House did very well. Also thanks go to the keen supporters such as "Rodgie", Kev McCracken, "Wattsy", "Macka" and many others.

Laurie Chong worked hard all year to keep the end dorms under control with the stirrer Andrew Cassie, Frank Mawson and the rest of the mob always looking for fun.

This year the prefects R. Metcalfe, L. Chong, T. Haslam, R. Horley, B. Rees, B. Roberts and J. Sedgwick did a fine job in redecorating the House with colorful posters. This made the place a lot more colorful.

Mr. House must be thanked a great deal for his keenness and inspiration to members of the House and in helping to make the House a lot more inhabitable.

Thanks also go to Mr. MacLeod for his help in sorting out problems and socials throughout the year.

Others to be thanks are Mrs. Cramer who did a great job keeping us clothed and for her colorful wall hangings; Mrs. House for the great suppers she has out on for the grateful prefects; and the Assistant Housemasters Mr. Ziatas, Mr. Cargeeg and Mr. Herman for their help this year. Best of luck to all you guys next year - hope you can take off the Cup again.

WALTERS

House Masters:	Mr. A.B. Burns Mr. B. Marsland Mr. P. Tooke Mr. P.S. Hopper
House Officials:	Captain: R. Fletcher Vice Captain: B.M. Smith Secretary: B.R. Clarke Treasurer: A.J. Tilbrook

After a close second to McClemons last year, Walters was keen to grab back the House Cup. This was evident by the keenness of the House Masters and the boys to do well at the House Swimming and Lifesaving events. Neville Hills, Captain of the Walters House swimming team tried hard to pull it out of the bag, had hold of the wrong end and we ended up a close eighth. The Lifesaving was a similar story with many hard tryers - "Just-in" Arnold, "Big Lins", Mark "Fritz" Frey, "Twiggy" Forrest and even the racing tadpole "Rob. the Throb". A well earned seventh place was the result.

Cricket this year saw the stars of '77 appear with Ross Wharton, the "Dark Horse from Darkan", Ross Norrie, "The battler from Bullfinch" and Wally Turner, "the clown from Corrigin" all in the First XI. Also on the cricket field we saw Rob. Fletcher, Captain of the Seconds with "Tilly the Wiley Wacker" and Willis at the wickets.

Tennis this year saw Bruce Clarke gain a very good seed in the 1st VIII and he looks to be a certain number one player for next year. Gus Gilmour also showed form in the Second VIII until an unfortunate accident which resulted in a dislocated knee. Tom Rodgers and Jolyon House were in the seconds squad.

The Rowing was well represented once again with Rupert Vernon Richard Oddie elected Vice Captain of Boats and he rowed well in the 1st IV with the strongly built cement mixer from Moora, Neville Hills. Others to row well for the House and later the School were Grylls, Bernie Kuhne, Andy Leiper, Dowerin Sadlier, Matthew Hawkes, Nigel Harding, "Big Lins" and "Bolts". Coxes for the House were Marty Battersby, "Twig", "Nipper" and "Flea" Harvey.

Second term and the winter sports got off to a good start. In the first XVIII we saw half the team being Walters House members, "Tilly" was elected committee man and played well throughout the term, Bruce Clarke, Ross Norrie, Ross Wharton, and the slippery wing man Doug Grewar, all came up from the U/16 last year to make the first this year. The newcomers to the side were Clayton Lewis, "the Nollamara Nungar", Peter "Dunny" Dunbar the Bunbury Boy and another Turner - Olive. The Under 16 side was also represented well, along with the 2nd year A's which helped gain many points in the football competition.

The Rugby team this year included from Walters, Rupert "Rocket" Oddie who was elected Vice Captain, "Mad" Ian Sanders and the "New Guinea All Star" Spiros Greaves. In the second XV was "Twig" Forrest (again), Neville Hills and "Jibill" Barrett-Lennard. Willy Atkins also went well in the Middle School.

Hockey! J.J. House, G.J. Willis and P.J. Prior all played in the 1st XI, James was unique in his ball handling while Gregory had the ability to make numerous good passes (at the opposition). Pete played every now and again.

Cross Country, at the end of the term, Walters managed a first, with a "brilliant" display of Captancy by "Juvenile" John Rodgers and his faithful twin brother Tom.

Walters won all age groups outright, excepting the Open in which we drew with McClemons. Star runners were for the Open, the "healthy" Hills, Oddie combination and Alan Tilbrook who all finished within the first five placed. In the U/17 competition, the two Rodgers brothers and Grylls showed form to win their age group comfortably. The under 16 age group was won easily by Rob Crossing and Clayton Lewis. Others to do well were Ross Clarke to win his age group and Grillo and Guesty also contributed well.

Third term and the minor games in basketball, soft ball, volley ball and squash got under way. Alan Tilbrook was elected captain for basket ball in which he led his team to victory on all three occasions. Well done Al! Spiros Greaves, Captain of softball, led his team to the Grand Final as well as Rob Fletcher in the squash, with a Grand Final game against McClemons. The volley ball was a slightly different case where that brilliant captain, Nev Hills led his team to a disappointing fourth, bad luck, Neville!

The Middle School minor games were a little disappointing where Walters only made one Grand Final, the squash. A good third in the soft-ball was a credit to them.

Third term also brought the Athletics in which Walters romped it home with a 100 point lead over McClemons to win the cup. Individual stars were Ross Norrie, the U/17 champion, Ross Clarke runner up U/15 champion who also set a record in the U/15 1500 metres; Guest who broke the U/14 800 metres, little Grylls who set a 800 metres record for the U/13 and Thomas "roo dog" Rodgers who set the 3,000 metres record. An excellent all-round effort by the whole House.

Special mention must go to the House officials, Gus Gilmour, Bob Prior and Jolyon "Cookie" House for their outstanding marshalling efforts. Also the keenness shown by all House masters especially Mr. A.B. Burns who in his last year of the boarding house put in a tremendous effort to get the House a total possible score in the overall House competition. Thanks a lot!

NOAKE

Housemasters:	Mr. A.H. London Mr. J.A. Pemberton Mr. R.E. Merrells Mr. L.P. Radanovich
House Officials:	House Captain: I.L. Clark House Vice Captain: D.A. Storer

Achievement and hard work usually go hand in hand; and this is what our House has found this year. As is the tradition for Noake House, our level of participation in sports this year was above that of any of the other seven Houses. Although our House contains only a handful of sporting champions, the way our members participate in every event in each and every sport, you'd think that they were all champions.

Take the life saving carnival for example; our reasonable showing here was due to the fact that even those who are relatively weak swimmers were willing to participate and be patients in the rescues. A more recent example of this attitude was shown in the House Athletics Competition where an inaugural 3,000 m. event was held. I was expecting competitors for this event to be very hard to find; on the contrary - several volunteers, most of whom had already run in the gruelling 1500 m. race made themselves available. Certainly this speaks volumes for our House members.

Whether in Swimming, Lifesaving, Athletics, Debating or minor sports, the Brown Bombers were in there!

At the time of writing, Noake is running sixth in the overall points for the "Champion House" competition. It looks as if our House will remain in sixth position to the end of the year, but our relatively low ranking belies our House spirit. I believe if points were only awarded for participation and spirit of competition, Noake would be the number one house.

Summing up, I feel that '76 has certainly been a year of success from an all round effort point of view; a standard which I hope will be maintained in the years to come.

JUPP

House Masters:	Mr. R.T. Woollett Mr. C.H. Watkins Mr. C.J. Williams Mr. K.W. Hopkins
House Officials:	House Captain: A.J. Viner Vice Captain: P.M. Moore Secretary: M.B. Wood

All the Green Year? Well, hardly but it has not been entirely barren or stagnant either. Even if we haven't won many points at the time of writing, and are residing, unchallenged at the bottom of the Championship Table, we have had our moments and have at all times displayed our customary cheerfulness and dogged fighting spirit.

Early in the year we took part in the School Swimming Competition. This involved a minimum of training for many but we had in our ranks some very competent individuals including Brian Rillstone who did very well to become the School Under 16 Champion.

With the introduction of the Minor Sports Competition held during lunch time, Jupp has competed well, although due to our uncontrollable generosity we didn't seem to win many of the games.

Jupp again acquitted itself well in the House Athletics Competition held in third term. With good individual efforts and healthy House support, we claimed fourth place against stiff competition. Particular mention must be made of Edwin Sinclair and his achievement in becoming the School U/16 Champion.

The more intellectual students in the House (of which there are many) had their chance in the Chess and Debating Competitions. The results of the Chess were "not very astounding" but as usual our team fought well to keep alive the courageous Jupp image. The Debating Team shocked the rest of the School with its powerful attack against the opposing Houses, blasting its way to the grand finals where it was narrowly defeated by Wolsey's team of hard core professionals. Congratulations must go to Marcus Holmes, Nick Newman and Andrew McGowan on their fine effort.

A particular tribute should be paid to Michael Williams who captained the House in the major competitions - Swimming and Athletics - and put a great deal of hard work into the organisation of teams. Our thanks of course, must go to Andrew Viner and Peter Moore for their leadership as Captain and Vice Captain and also to Mr. Woollett, our Senior House Master for this year and his compatriots, Mr. Watkins, Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Williams. Naturally, Jupp would not be where it is but for their efforts. Unfortunately, they refused to comment on this point.

ROMSEY

House Masters:	Mr. L.S. Owen Mr. D.C. Bowker Mr. R.H. Dixon Mr. A.L. Pate
House Officials:	Captain: M.H. Bingemann Vice Captain: M.L. Barrett Secretary: Treasurer: L.W. McMahon

1976 seemed to be a year when mediocrity was in vogue for Romsey House. Our position of fourth overall in the House competition is a testimony to that. Although we cannot greet such a conclusion to the competition with elation, we can find consolation in the knowledge that we are steadily improving and that the "middle of the road" House may soon be attaining success as the "top of the road" House.

An area that we did gain success in this year was the swimming competition. Although several of the House members were pessimistic about our chances, and I must admit, I thought we'd go off like a bucket of prawns in the sun, such aquatic personalities as House Captain Mark Bingemann led us through to victory. So, the House that was all at sea certainly made waves in that competition.

Surprisingly Romsey also met with victory in the area of Rugby, where points were allocated for the number of boys representing the school in an "A" or First XV side. Such skilful Rugby players as Greg. Nash and Greg. Jones gained many points for their House in this field. Unfortunately in Hockey and Football, Romsey came last.

Always in any group of people, you can expect to find a non-conformist, a person who has a flagrant disregard for the general consensus of opinion. In Romsey we had such a person in the form of Nigel Forrester. Whilst the rest of the House was decidedly mediocre, Nigel was disruptively outstanding. As an example, in the House Athletics, Nigel was disruptively outstanding. As an example, in the House Athletics, Nigel broke more records than a drunken disc jockey and unashamedly too! Treadgold, a chubby fourth year, has told me that he will take steps to ensure that Nigel conforms next year.

Being an extremely academic House, Romsey came third in the Debating competition. Our star debater, Paul Mitchell, assures me that they would have attained a higher position had not the other seven Houses been in the competition.

The Romsey Tutorials were famed throughout the School for their high level of discipline and organisation. The four tutors maintained a high standard throughout the year.

But, in conclusion, I feel that Romsey's year of mediocrity can be attributed to an administrative oversight. The areas of competitive sport and culture that Romsey boys excel in have been maliciously neglected by the School Administration. As an example, large number of Romsey boys, unlike the rather peculiar boarding houses, show keen interest in bird watching and spend many long hours pursuing their interest at such well known nesting grounds as Swanbourne beach. But is there an area of competition whereby these talented lads can display their skills? No! for sadly, Romsey lost many points through simple bureaucratic neglect of the areas that they excelled in. But, at least there is always hope for next year.

L.W. McMahon, Year 12

CRAIGIE

House Masters:	Mr. H. Woodall Mr. P.T. Zahra Mr. P.J. Rickey Mr. A.A. Wilkins
House Officials:	House Captain: M.J. McKenzie Vice Captain: K.H. Leighton Treasurer: P.G. Hartill

Craigie started the year well with a third place in the House Swimming Competition. Our Swimming Captain, P. Connor led a strong team, and all swimmers did well. Andrew King was our most outstanding swimmer and he was the Under 13 Champion.

In the Lifesaving Competition we performed reasonably well but could only manage fifth place. Simon Bibby, Rohan Pixley and Andrew King all did well in their events.

The Athletic Sports held on October 8th was a great day for the whole school. Craigie produced the Under 13 Champion in Andrew King and the Under 14 Champion in Chris Tulk and our other athletes, especially the Under 17's tried very hard. In three of the relays we gained second place. Our strength however was not deep enough and we could only manage seventh place. Some of our Open competitors tended to lose heart. Special thanks must go to our Athletics Captain, Stephen Price, Vice-Captain Gary Hicks and David Millward who did an excellent job as Marshall, both at the Cross Country and Athletic Sports.

In the minor games competition, we have not had much success but all team members have enjoyed the games.

At the time of writing this report, Craigie holds fifth place overall, a position we may be able to improve upon in the remaining weeks of this term.

QUEENSLEA HOUSE

House Persons:	Mr. D.J. Morrissy Mr. C.G. Hammond Mrs. L.J. Fortune Mr. A.A. Mountier
House Officials:	House Captain: A.J. Phillimore House Vice Captain: A.J. Cook House Secretary: D.J. Joske House Treasurer: N.G. Taylor

Well this year has seen the fire of enthusiasm of the mighty Red Devils quenched somewhat. Those flames that have leapt so high have been — for a while — put on ice.

Looking through the results, a few items stand out. One is the generosity of the Red Devils who have given just about the most to the Social Service collections. This is probably due to the menacing figure of Neil Taylor whose gymnastic career has considerably aided his development and hence the Queenslea collections.

Queenslea's intellectual capabilities came into their own as they master minded a great victory in the rowing lead by the combined genius of "Big Jim" Battersby, "Roller" Cook and "Id" Hilton, all members of the renowned C.C.G.S. First XIII.

The House's great ball playing skill was revealed in the basket ball competition. The glee of ex-McClemans members Neil, ("How's Sheva?") Bovenizer and Steve Annear was a testimony to a memorable victory over McClemans, whose singlet colour revealed the nature of the team. This win enabled the jubilant Red Devils to partake in that well known sport called "Rubbing it in" Unfortunately, the result of the final is not yet known!

Despite thunderous support from Mr. Hammond and squeals of delight from Mr. Mountier as Neil Bovenizer and "Baz" Herman mounted their final challenge in the 3000 m., the House didn't quite succeed in the House Athletics. One lesson was learnt in the tug-of-war, Queenslea athletes can't pull like the boarding houses. Good individual performances were Gary Watkins (U16 Champion) who certainly humped his fair share of the work and "Big Jim" (Honour Blazer) Battersby who shot his opponents down in flames with supporting muscle power from Mark Hanlon and Neil Taylor.

Our thanks are due to Claude Infirri, "Babyface" French, A.J. King and A.J. Parry for keeping Neil Taylor's spirits up and biceps flexed with the best excuses of the year for avoiding donating their weekly pittance to the collections.

Finally our thanks to our House Persons for their help which came in all shapes and sizes throughout the year.

WOLSEY

House Masters:	Mr. Luttrell Mr. Holmes Miss da Silva Mr. Jones
House Officers:	House Captain: R. Briedahl House Secretary: B. Ethell House Treasurer: B. Ibbitson

Wolsey, after being out of the limelight in house competition in recent years, showed the good qualities of a team to come back as a driving force this year.

Swimming seems to be the best place to start when we talk about Wolsey "the team". We never had one outstanding individual in our swimming and life saving teams, and probably for this reason we worked together to achieve our good places in both these sports. We did, however, see qualities of leadership in Richard Briedahl, Nick Welch and Peter Seward, qualities that were to be invaluable throughout the year.

Athletics was not the brightest spot for Wolsey this year and although the team effort was still there, the talent was a little thin. We did see some fine personal performances firstly by Nick Welch, who was Under 17 Athletics runner up and Scott Rigney who set a record in the discus, and there were many others who tried hard and did well.

Andrew Goatcher was given the job of House Athletics captain and did a commendable job. At the time of writing, House Minor Sports have been quite successful for Wolsey, where we have managed to reach the semi-finals in all sports - basketball, softball and volleyball - squash being the exception, in both Senior and Middle Schools.

House debating saw the invincible combination of Brett Clugston, John Silberstein and Mathew Hansen go through the competition unbeaten. House Chess was a success for Wolsey also with Ray Deely putting a lot of hard work into this activity.

Wolsey's Treasurer, Brett Ibbitson did an excellent job with the House charity collections, to which the boys of Wolsey gave more than any other House.

Wolsey are at present leading the House competition and I feel that the reason behind this is the improved attitude of the boys in Wolsey. For the first time in years there has been a real sense of House spirit.

In closing I would like to thank Mr. Luttrell for his continuous efforts as Housemaster and also the boys who have shown a great spirit, a consistency of effort which has taken Wolsey to its position at the top!

McCLEMANS

Senior House Master: Mr. R.F. House and, Mr. G.P. Davis
Mr. P.M. Draper
Mr. D.B. Weber

House Officials: Captain: John Annear
Vice Captain: Richard Metcalfe
Secretary: Jon Sedgwick

Once again McClemans has achieved well in all activities and at the time of going into print we are in a close second place to Wolsey.

We started the year on a high note with a number of members of the house in the 1st teams of cricket and tennis and rowing. Notables were John "Duds" Annear and Tim "Bionic" Haslam in the tennis and David Stephenson and Andy Haslam in the cricket, with Ross Barber in the 1st eight crew. Congratulations to them all.

However, we came a disappointing seventh in the house swimming but were well represented by "Frog" Horley, Willy Carrington-Jones, Michael George and Andrew Moyes. All four represented the school in the swimming inters.

It was in the house life saving that we showed our supremacy. The team was lead to victory by Ross Horley ably assisted by "slim" Kim Thomas as Chief Marshall. There was some courageous swimming from iron man Andy Haslam who was one of the many who did well on the night.

Members of McClemans also excelled in the winter sports. In the 1st 18 we had John Annear as Captain plus Andy Haslam, Russel McKay, Tim Haslam and "Stick" Guinness as consistent members. We also were represented in the first XI hockey with Richard Metcalfe as captain and Jon Sedgwick and David Stephenson playing regularly s well as sport, McClemans members also shone in their musical abilities. Members of the music department were Lawrence "Charlie" Chong, Peter Moyes, Tony Guinness, Brett and Campbell Thomson and Jon Sedgwick.

This year McClemans has done particularly well in athletics and Gymnastics.

We had Mike Lambert and John Barton representing the state in the gymnastics with John gaining fourth place in the Under 16 school championships.

In the athletics, we have done really well, ably led by Richard Guinness and Brad "Harry Lee Kuan" Roberts of Singapore. We gained second place overall in the cross country with all members putting up a good fight.

Once again we achieved very well in the house sports gaining a close 2nd place to Walters. John Annear, vice-captain of the school team, did very well to win the long distance and open cups. Other good efforts came from David Stephenson, Eric Glass, "Frank" Mawson and Phil Creighton. To date we have done very well in the minor house games and hope to continue this in the final rounds.

To finish I would like to thank all those members of the house who have assisted in its running, especially Mr. House and our enthusiastic tutors — Mr. Weber (with one b), "speedy" Davis and Monsieur Draper the house interpreter.

I would like to encourage all boys to participate in some activity as did "Dynamite" Bill whose explosive efforts down at shot-put warned all winter swimmers that this was a time to run — not swim, especially when Bill's shots tended to stray into the pool.

Avid readers of this column might recall a comment or two made in last year's "Mitre" "The End of an Era - - The Cadet Unit is dead"! Fortunately, this is now about as realistic as a jog to the top of "Peter Tooke's Peak" at Koorringal!

There were a few difficult moments this year, but these faded in the light of renewed Government and Army support, a very successful end of year bivouac and the mere enthusiasm of the Unit to continue - no matter what.

In the Beginning:-

We commenced the year without Army support which left us technically without uniforms - technically that was, until the conniving and exploitation of devious means by our Fearless Leader resulted in 300 sets of jungle greens, boots, berets etc. appearing in our Q Store. With minor patching and ironing of uniforms by Mums, the Unit showed itself to all with the first uniformed parade on 25th February.

Then the First Bivouac:-

This was held at Koorringal from April 23rd to 26th. The Duke of Edinburgh Award candidates participated in a trial expedition. The remainder of 'A' Company took part in a seek and destroy exercise of the Nanga Bridge - no less than 10 miles upstream - covered in darkness too. The bridge was located, hostile guards and positions observed and the bridge successfully destroyed. The Company was then subjected to a running fight involving a number of "quick decision exercises" back to its base.

This operation was supported by the Radio Section of Adventure Company whilst Lt. Tooke and his trusty Company Commander exercised the remainder of that Company in Canoeing, Civil Emergency Training, the construction of a flying fox and a number of mind boggling operations - a successful bivouac with a Nil casualty rate.

Canoeing and the Avon Descent:-

Canoeing this year has taken on seriously within the Unit and the School. There is no doubt that the highlight of canoeing activities this year was C.U.O. Clugston and C.U.O. Rees' participation in the Avon Descent. These two built their own canoes, subjected themselves to a strenuous training programme including white water training and then competed in the arduous Avon Descent, ably assisted by the support team of Captain Fraser, C.U.O. Cook and Sgt. Thomas. C.U.O. Clugston and C.U.O. Rees are to be especially congratulated as they were one of only 41 teams who completed the descent out of 230 starters.

Shooting:-

Without Army support it looked as if this activity would not eventuate. However using the School's miniature .22 range, some borrowed .22 rifles and some ammunition which (like the uniforms) "mysteriously" appeared, we had shooting after all.

Although House shooting was not undertaken the Norrie Cup was shot for and won by Cadet A. Boulbee with an aggregate score of 86/100.

In our Second Bivouac/Camp:-

this was an "A" Company only bivouac held once again at Koorringal from the 1st to 3rd October.

The test expedition for the Duke of Edinburgh candidates was completed and 21 cadets qualified for their Bronze Award.

Other training consisted of an introduction to radios, canoeing, orienteering course and a special exercise "Operation Whitewash" conducted by Cpl. Samuels. Limited Army support was back and this meant more food than we could possibly consume! However, a few heavy showers of rain did spoil attempts at a "langi" - but most will agree, it was a great weekend.

Duke of Edinburgh Awards:-

The Premier Sir Charles Court presented the Silver Award to eleven members of the Unit. This was a Unit first and Congratulations must go to every one of those eleven. A number of students have been motivated to such an extent there is even talk of all attempting the Gold Award in 1977!!

Adventure Training Company:-

The finale to their activities was a Cliff Roping Course conducted by the S.A.S. Regiment at Campbell Barracks. The training culminated with an all day exercise at the 97 foot (!!) cliff face at Boya Quarry

The existing Unit film has been added to, amended and re-vamped and now forms a 30 minute documentary of the Unit's history and activities - definitely well worth seeing for any aspiring recruits.

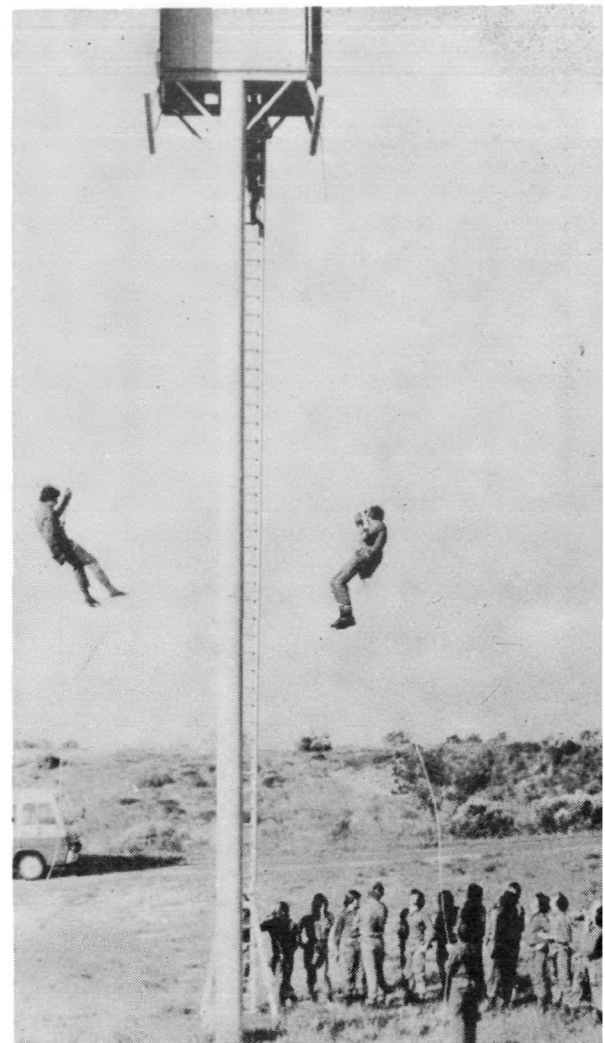

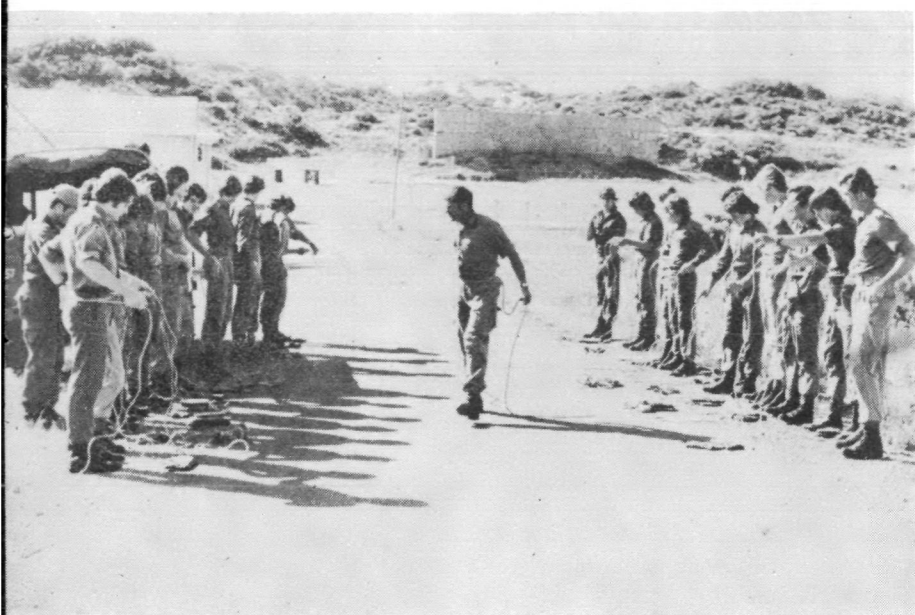

This brings us to the end of the year's activities. Of the 128 serving members in 1976 a total of 56 have elected to serve on in 1977. This gives a clear indication of the enthusiasm of the Unit during the year without Government and Army support and must surely give an indication of what we can expect next year with Army support.

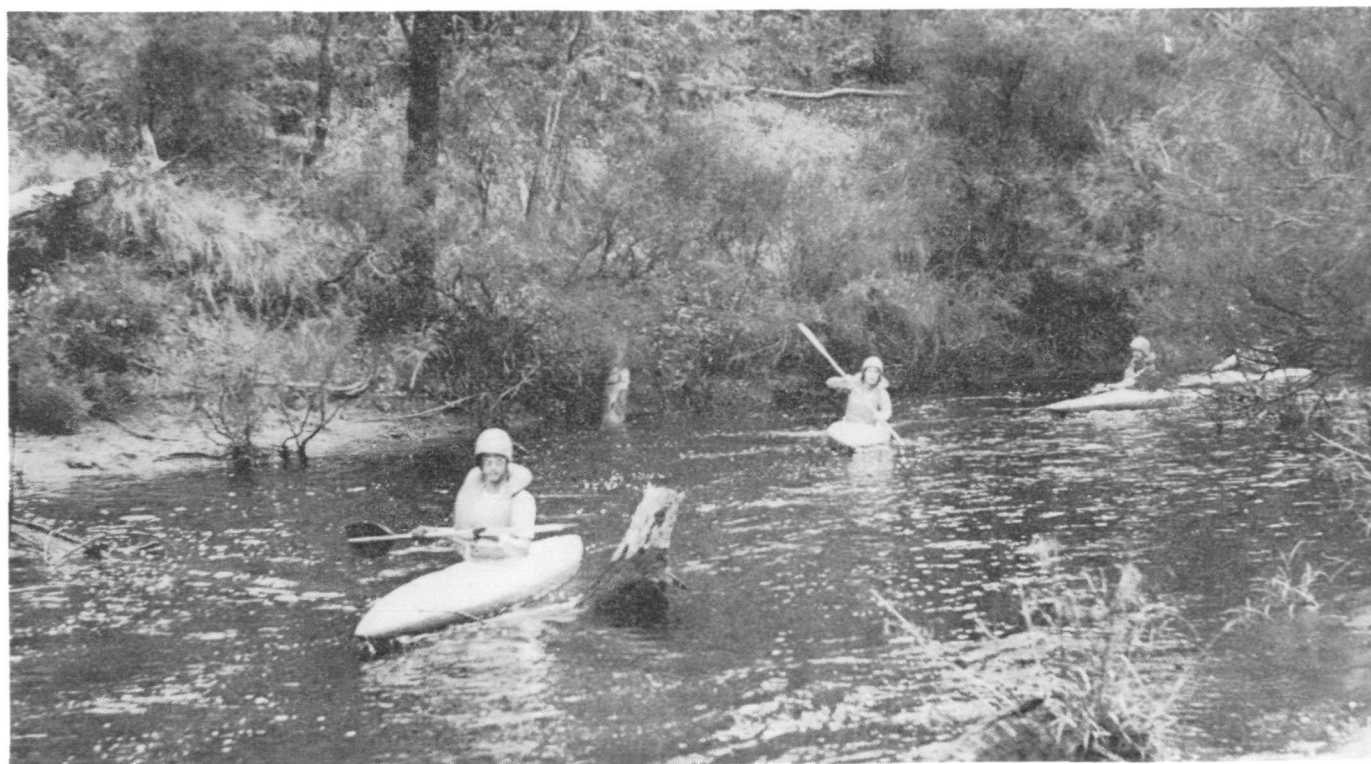

Thanks must go to the Unit's Commanding Officer, Mr. Moyes for his total support during the trying times encountered this year for without enthusiasm we just could not have continued. And it goes without saying that the resourcefulness, experience and sheer ability of one, Captain Fraser, to make the "virtually impossible" materialise has been appreciated by all. Many thanks too to the Company Commanders, Lt. Peter Tooke and Lt. Peter May, Lt. Ricky Brine, the platoon commanders and sergeants and all the power group, and to that most important element of the Unit, the cadets who gave their support to the organisers and their understanding when things didn't quite go as planned.

Watch out for the Adventure unit in '77

MUSIC AND DRAMA

1976 has been a successful year for the Music Department which has been the operation centre for a variety of musical activities.

The highlight of the year's music was the combined Christ Church and S.Hilda's musical production of "Nicholas Nickleby" which was performed for three consecutive nights at S.Hilda's. The great success of a production like this can be attributed to the combination of the orchestra and the choral society.

Originally the musical was to be produced by Mr. Pemberton but when the student taking the leading role of Mr. Squeers had to drop out he decided to take the part. It was not long before he decided that acting and producing a musical was quite impossible, so Mr. Mountier who has produced a number of other school operas stepped in to assist. All these initial problems wasted a considerable amount of rehearsal time, leaving a little over a month to get everything in readiness. The Music Staff with valuable assistance from staff at S.Hilda's set out to really get things off the ground. Staff and students alike made a spectacular effort and with weekend rehearsals we managed to get "Nicholas" in a fit state to perform. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed producing and performing "Nicholas Nickleby" even though there were numerous problems involved in doing it — not the least being injuries sustained by the conductor, Mr. Ullman, which put him on crutches for several weeks.

Due to the great amount of time and effort put in by Mrs. Scrimgeour, the Choral Society has increased in numbers quite dramatically. There is now a school choir with members from the Preparatory School and Senior School plus a Choral Society whose members took principal roles in "Nicholas Nickleby".

For the first time in many years the Choral Society has been performing with the orchestra. Together they are in the final stages of rehearsals for a concert which is to be held in the Chapel on Friday 29th October. There will be a variety of performances ranging from duets to full orchestra pieces.

The Preparatory School orchestra and in fact its music in general has never been better. Its orchestra includes string, wood-wind, and brass instruments, with the boys performing in Chapel each Thursday morning.

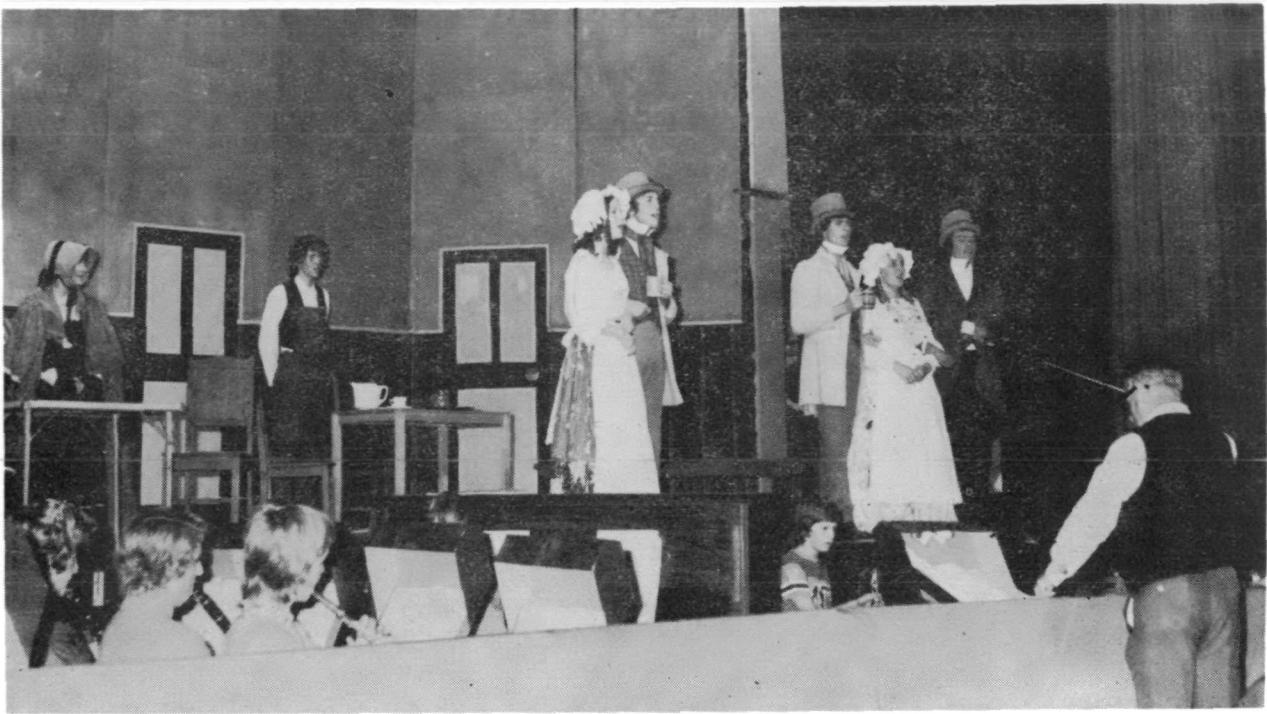

The Preparatory School choir and orchestra gave a concert on Open Day and will also be performing at the concert on the 29th.

Before finishing I would like to extend my thanks to the staff of the Music Department. They have put a great amount of time and effort into making musicians and singers out of the uninitiated majority who come to Christ Church.

Tasmanian Tour September 1976

During the August holidays this year, a group of history students went on a historical tour of Tasmania under the supervision of Mr. Luttrell and Mr. House.

After departing from Perth airport late Friday night, we spent a very interesting day in Melbourne visiting the Victorian Cultural Centre, Shrine of Remembrance, Captain Cook's Cottage and witnessing a brilliant game of V.F.L. football that even the non-footballers enjoyed.

That night we were on our way to Launceston, Tasmania and on arrival the temperature was a meek 4°C. To meet us was the St. Michael's school Headmaster and several teachers who proved to be tremendous hosts throughout the tour, supplying us with two Toyota buses and experienced guiding while on tour.

For the next three days we visited interesting, historical points in and around Launceston and along the North coast. This included the paper mill at Burnie, which we all agreed was worse than Kwinana for pollution problems, hence a predominant touring motto "Burnie Stinks". While in Launceston, we also visited Cataract Gorge and had a night on the town.

The next day we departed from Launceston for Ross via Campbell town. After a guided tour of Beaufront Deer Park and the historical townsite of Ross we spent the night in the shearer's quarters at Mr. K.D. von Bibra's property. Next morning we moved on through the historical townships of Richmond and the penal settlements at Port Arthur to Hobart, arriving at dusk. That night while we attended the Hobart cinemas the masters had a heavy night at Wrest Point Casino. Rumour had it that Mr. House had spent all the touring group's money. Most boys decided to withdraw their money from Mr. House's bank next morning and were surprised to get it all back. Mr. House must have at least broken even the night before as it was still all there. Many rumours were spread about Mr. Luttrell, but he has assured me, they were all "just rumours."

The following day we had a very comprehensive three hour guided tour of historical points in and around Hobart, including the Anglesea Army Barracks, Battery Point, Parliament House and then we departed for Launceston. During the tour we covered over 2,000 miles in the buses alone.

Saturday September 4th saw us say farewell to our great friends and hosts in Launceston and fly to Melbourne, then straight on to Adelaide where we visited the Festival Theatre, walked through the town, had lunch on Glenelg Beach and went to the Show in the afternoon.

We were soon on a turbulent airlift back to Perth arriving at 11.00p.m.

Our thanks must go to our fantastic hosts all over Tasmania and to Mr. Luttrell and Mr. House for a well thought out and executed trip of Tasmania.

Although deciding where collections go is an important part of the group's responsibilities (we aided Guide Dogs for the Blind, Lions Save Sight, Kidney Foundation, Uni Camp for Kids, and Royal Flying Doctor Service this year) Social Services does not simply mean money-raising. It means making some time available now and then to do something no-one is going to force you to do. Inevitably, this benefits someone else. Social Service needs manpower - why sit around a table devising brilliant and original ways to raise funds to pay for a professional gardener to deal with an invalid pensioner's flower bed when those thirty minutes could have meant the job was completed to everyone's satisfaction?

The 1976 committee, with J. Silberstein as president and G. Crooke as Secretary/Treasurer worked hard and thought hard. They lacked depth of support to carry out their aims to the full. Often the committee members themselves did all the hospital visiting. However, there was a good turn-out for the Red Shield and Red Cross doorknocks - thanks very much to those who helped. Let us keep up these traditions in 1977 - two such occasions enable you to show that young people in the community are aware of the deficiencies their elders have failed to rectify, but are not content to sit back and let things deteriorate.

No, we did not deliver 'phone books in 1976 - a question mainly of a lack of qualified drivers and transport. (Is there a challenge here for the 1977 guys?) However, one single lunchtime concert raised roughly half as much money in 30 minutes thanks to the unselfish efforts of a group of Old Boys who gave up virtually an entire day to aid our collections in this way. The collections needed a boost - too often the Prep School puts the Senior School to shame by its generosity. A new (secret) scheme whereby Social Service workers will infiltrate Houses at treasury level might be the answer in 1977.

The '77 committee will need to look at the matter of the power of publicity. A certain shyness about broadcasting our activities may have veiled some of our work recently. People only become suspicious or critical if they do not understand.

Well done, J. Barrett-Lennard and M. Grewar of year 10 who regularly assisted in the Crippled Children's Riding Centre on Thursdays. We hope that this demanding but enjoyable work will appeal to large numbers next year.

Library Prefects Report

The library prefects this year have been of great and necessary assistance to the library, toting the vast store of books, journals, pot-plants, and the rest of the library's accumulated treasures early in the year when the change-over to the Selwyn Prior library occurred. Our volunteer staff was Kim Leighton, Michael Williams, Mark MacKenzie, David Storer, David Hokin, Ken Stokes, Iain Churchward, Kin Jayasuriya.

We were on duty at lunch times and after school each day, replacing books on shelves, evicting the irresponsible and maintaining a generally presentable and efficient working atmosphere.

The library prefects have worked hard and have proved themselves to be men of infinite patience, when various groups and societies, such as Chess, Debating etc., have invaded their privacy.

All in all, I think that the library prefects this year have provided an excellent service and continuous loyalty to Mrs. Hall, our librarian, and her aides, Mrs. Hume and Mrs. Bibby. I hope that next year's "mob" will provide as good, if not better, assistance and service.

TUCKSHOP '76

Looking back on our reign of three terms in the "Tucky", it has surely been one of the most eventful that a Tuckshop Committee has ever had.

Firstly, I think our committee had more membership changes than any previous committee. Secondly, events such as jamming the roller door so we couldn't shut up shop, arranging for a new freezer without consulting the Bursar and the numerous failures of the present freezer did our reputation as fine, honest school citizens, little good. Life certainly was exciting and tough "inside". We managed to live through sporadic attacks from the irresponsible who were not above trying to smoke us out.

Finally, I would like to thank those members of the Tuckshop Committee whose self control did help to keep our overall loss down to $46.00!

DEBATING

As Samuel Clemens almost said, there are four kinds of liars: liars, damned liars, statisticians and debaters. There are also four debating teams at Christ Church, each of which has four members.

Two teams were entered at Junior level in the inter school competition (which is now run under the auspices of the W.A. Debating League). They consisted of various permutations of S. Annear, B. Clarke, F. Court, G. Forbes, P. Hobbs, D. Lang, D. McKenzie, G. Myatt, A. Putt and E. Sinclair. Both teams did well to win three out of the five competition debates.

At senior level, debates were impromptu with only thirty minutes allowed for preparation. The senior B team consisted of year elevens, Nick Newman, Michael Henderson and Rae Deeley (in order of speaking) with Michael Ellies assisting with preparation and acting as reserve. Unfortunately they won only one competition debate, but with a year's experience in impromptu debating they are certain to do better next year.

The senior A team consisted of Graham Crooke as first speaker, Brett Clugston as second and Jon Silberstein third. Jon Sedgwick assisted with preparation and acted as reserve. Their season was somewhat more successful. They were the only team out of the 49 in the competition to win all five qualifying rounds. They thus qualified for the semi finals. Unfortunately, due to a Nicholas Nickleby (q.v.) dress rehearsal, two of the team members were unable to debate in the semi final and Mt. Lawley proved too strong for the emergency team.

Once again we were represented in the State Secondary School Team, this year by Graham Crooke. Although the team did not win any debates in Melbourne they came fifth out of seven so they must have been good debaters.

Thanks go to the Rev. Dutton for his support and organisation of the Club. No thanks go to the students of Christ Church whose support of one of the most successful school teams of the year was disappointing.

I.S.C.F.

This year's I.S.C.F. group has been small, with only a few boys (and sometimes their friends) in regular attendance. Due to insufficient contact with the incoming first years, attendance is, in fact, down on last year.

Meetings were held on Thursdays and activities included Films, Quizzes and Indoor Games. There were also several interesting speakers some of whom were Len Firth at Christ Church and Miss Liz. Pelican a Scripture Union staff worker.

Late in second term David Joske delivered some talks at Scotch College to introduce the idea of I.S.C.F. to the boys at that school. I.S.C.F. Scotch is now well under way.

A few boys from School attended I.S.C.F. camps this year and from what they tell us, they enjoyed themselves very much indeed.

Next year, it is hoped that the group will expand considerably, although help will be needed from more senior boys as David Joske, Andrew Buchanan and myself have decided not to repeat Year XII. Consequently, Andrew Poole is looking for volunteers to help him run the group.

Many thanks to Mr. Morrissy for his invaluable help, without which we could not have continued to function in 1976.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE

The Chapel Committee has once again managed to find a wide and interesting range of speakers throughout the year, so that we have been made aware of the work of organisations as diverse as the Anne Frank Foundation of Amsterdam and the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia. We have been told the inside story of the most recent America's Cup Challenge and how to train for Athletics. We have been exhorted to Western Australian Secession and a change of government for Singapore so that it becomes an understatement to say that we have had a wide range of speakers representing minority groups and a spectrum of political and public opinion.

The Chapel is also used for worship and memorable occasions have been a service in preparation for Easter and two end of term services in which the whole school has been involved and which have had a large number of senior students as participants. The Middle School services have been enhanced recently by class presentations within the theme of the service, on care and defence, acceptance and rejection and family conflict.

On some Sundays, always on the first and last Sunday of each term, we have invited parents and friends to Family Services as on Founders Day and for the recent recording of an Epiphany Service to be rebroadcast by the A.B.C. on January 17th 1977.

ART SERVICE

The 1976 art-service group was a somewhat large one. The bulk of the boys were from year 10, although there were a number of willing and able helpers from years 8 and 9.

This main group was responsible for painting the stage flats and accessories for the musical "Nicholas Nickleby". The boys were all pleased at the final result of their labours. Two of the most consistent and able workers were David Flower and Gavin Collett, both from year 10.

The second and smaller art-service group, (numbering 6 in all) is usually active on Monday afternoons. They are responsible for much of the general maintenance work in and around the art-department, work such as the cleaning, sharpening and mending of broken equipment and furniture.

General:

First term included the purchasing by the school, of a new electric pottery kiln. This, in part means that ceramic works can now be fired with much more precision. This eliminates, to a large extent, wasted time and broken hearts, as less pieces are broken during firing. The completed ceramics will be displayed in the Memorial Hall in November, together with a comprehensive exhibition of the art and craft work done this year.

(230). In our semi-final scores were - Applecross S.H.S. 460, C.C.G.S. 380, S.Hilda's 190. This score was sufficient to place us in the Series final. In this match we started well, but lapsed towards the end. Final scores - Applecross 520, Brigidine College 365, C.C.G.S. 350. Applecross went on to become W.A. champions. Each of our team received a watch, calculator and pen. The School received $150 of sporting equipment in the form of hurdles.

Thanks go to Mr. Woollett for all his coaching expertise and also to our reserves for giving up spare time to attend training sessions.

KAYAK KLUB

For the first time, canoeing started up as an official sport first term this year. There were many applicants for canoeing and the numbers had to be cut down somehow. What better way than a gruelling six mile sprint around the district — that sorted the men from the boys.

Training started off on a sore point with Mr. Tooke's "Get Fit" campaign, with more painful miles being run than the cross country boys.

After a few months the Kayak Klub started to get expert tuition from Bill Davis, a member from the local Swan Canoe Club. His expertise and enthusiasm were well noted particularly his ability to control his boat and his skills of eskimo rolling. We all extend our sincere thanks to Bill for his generous assistance during the year.

After the initial burst of energy many members of the Klub began to turn their energies into making their own canoes which is a major concept of the Kayak Klub. Peter Hume churned out the first tank during the Easter break — closely followed by Stuart Cole. School resumed and for the few remaining weeks the mould was repaired for the next onslaught. During the May holidays Brett Clugston and Tony Cook, after many incidents of fibreglassing the "Q" store and painting the M.L.C. fence pale shades of pink, managed to turn out two reasonable canoes.

With many canoes to its name the slalom mould has begun to show signs of wear and tear and the purchase of a new Canadian mould and a canoe trailer would greatly increase the flexibility of the Klub.

In late July two members competed in the Avon Descent — a good endurance test. The race acts as a finale to the year's training and I hope many others will enter next year.

Due to the fact that the computer was no longer a novelty, the 1976 Computing Club perhaps lacked some of the verve it had in 1975. That year of intrepid exploration had left little uncharted territory for the veteran year 12s, but then I suppose the year 11 members still had to discover for themselves many of the "idiosyncracies" of the machine which are not mentioned in the instruction manual.

The installation of the telephone link provided a shortcut to financial ruin and a new area for experimentation for our more opulent members. It enables the more sophisticated University computers to be used from Christ church.

Certainly, this year's Club was less of a group and more of a number of individuals than last years. This was so despite the fact that the computer was moved to its own room.

However, as planned, this year a computing course was included in the Achievement Certificate Mathematics Course so that more students had a chance to take advantage of this almost unique facility.

Thanks must go to Mr. P.T. Zahra for his support and organisation of the Club.

POUND '76

Another Impounded Year

It has been another good year for the Pound organisation. The hard working highly organised non-profit making exceedingly charitable Pound Committee extorted a sum total of, after tax, $10,597.00 for this financial year. The other Pound sub-committees for the control of such ventures as the S.P. Bookie Ring and Whiskey Distillery also acclaimed record rates of extortion.

Politics

The Pound decided to politically re-align itself with fascism, in particular the pro-Nazi Vorster regime of South Africa. Pound members were impressed by the concept of a minority, such as themselves, having the right to completely dominate and exploit the majority. Hence the Pound under their new Apartheid Law, have officially declared everyone black.

Culture

Apart from an abortive attempt to create a Bolshoi Belly Dancing Company the Pound has not engaged in any cultural activities as it considers the fineries of civilisation to be quite boring.

Sport

Soccer: The Pound team regained the Pound cup by annihilating the staff team 3 — 0. Best players for the Pound were Godzillo, Zorro and William the Wonderhorse.

Debating: The staff declined to debate against the Pound team.

Budgies: The Pound team finished 200 metres ahead of the despotic Hanoverian monarch George III.

OPEN DAY

THE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

In past years the House competition in the Preparatory School has primarily been concerned with sporting events. An interesting development this year has been the extension of the House involvement to all facets of school life. Points are awarded for day to day schoolwork, line-ups, chapel collections for charity, and so on. Each house has a duty week with responsibility for the cleanliness and tidiness of the grounds and as a result of this there has been a great improvement in standards and a feeling of pride in this.

The week's competition culminates in an assembly on Friday at which the results are announced. This gathering is run by the boys themselves. The boys select the readings, prayers and hymns and give their own sports reports and house reports. Usually one class entertains the rest of the school with a play or a musical item and this in itself has raised the standards of dramatic and musical work in the Preparatory School.

Another innovation is the Honour Boy system. Every week one boy in each class is awarded an Honour Boy Certificate. These are not awarded to the 'top boy'. Rather they are given for specific effort on the boys' part so they are within the reach of every boy. The certificates are presented at the Friday Assemblies.

Traditionally, the House system is intended to teach loyalty to a unit larger than self. In practice our house competition is helping develop a greater degree of unselfishness in the students.

GYMNASTICS

It has been a successful year for the gymnasts. In the competitions we went very well. There are four new boys this year and two old boys, Garry Chapman and Peter King came first and second. Third was Richard Ansell and Fourth, Adrian Pate. The interschool Gym competitions were in August and we had a remarkable result with the "A" team coming first, (CCGS) second, Morley and Christ Church taking out third and fourth.

JUPITER

When I was a boy I wanted to be an astronaut. And When I grew up I was an astronaut. One day I was going to space. But one man said go up to Jupiter. When I landed on the Planet I was frozen! Meanwhile down on earth the man said I will die. But up in space Mars collided on to Jupiter and melted the ice and I ran back to the capsule. I went to other planets. When I got back I told the police. And they saw him and put him in jail.

THE BELL THAT LOST ITS SOUND

Once upon a time there was a church bell that Tom Jones used to ring every morning to wake the town of Jason Hill. One day when Tom went to ring the bell it didn't ring.

This meant that no one in the neighbourhood woke up.

the bread man didn't come, neither did the milk man.

The boy was very upset; he went to the top of the steeple and there he saw a little bird making a nest.

The bird and the bell were friends by now.

There was another bell next to the bell that used to ring and it worked.

The bells and the birds are friends. The bird loved to sing to the bells and the bells loved to ring to the bird.

DESERT BONES

Just recently two archeologists landed in Perth on a vacation. Their names were Malcolm Bott and Donald Wall. They are the most famous archeologists in America. After they arrived in Perth they chartered a plane for Alice Springs. They put aboard their supplies then with a crew of two set off for Alice Spring. While over the Simpson Desert both engines malfunctioned because of the extreme heat. When they crash landed most of the supplies were destroyed. After two days all the food and water was gone (except in the plane's radiator). In another day everything had gone except a few sheets, rugs and clothing. That night a heavy blasting sand storm swept across them leaving nothing but part of the crashed plane. By the morning they were frantically searching for water when Malcolm came across some prehistoric animals bones. About an hour later they found some water. By this time a rescue squadron had nearly reached the stranded archeologists. When the planes reached them they took the bones and the survivors back to Perth. The bones of this animal have been restored and have been put together on the top floor of the Perth Museum. They're one of the world's most famous discoveries.

BOOZY

I was just about to tell the biggest lie of my life. All that damage I had to account for, just because of Boozy.

Boozy was our four foot St. Bernard. He was big, clumsy, adoring and hairy-like; a big portable rug with eyes, ears, legs, a tail and a sloppy tongue.

Well it all started when I was gloomily walking in the gate thinking about my nine-page essay, when Boozy launched himself toward me, tail wagging madly. I was not ready for him so I was hurled backward into mum's tulip patch, crushing her favourites, but even worse, my bag flew through the air and smashed our precious Chinese vase. Meanwhile, Boozy was leaping around slobbering over me, happily crushing what tulips were left.

I dazedly picked myself up and went inside, leaving Boozy outside. Explosively, Boozy leaped up, crushing the last tulip, and sailed through the lounge window. Boozy seemed to have forgotten the window was closed and with a splintering crash, landed on the TV set. The TV set was a portable one so it was not very heavy and when Boozy jumped on it he sent it spinning onto my dad's chair, which smashed on the floor.

When the acrid smoke cleared I could see Boozy on mum's rocking chair, or what was left of it. The TV set had flattened on the floor, like a tomato does when it is dropped from a height. The lunge was decorated with brightly coloured wires, bits of wood, half the water of the fish tank, glass, cracked ash trays and tufts of carpet. Also there was a strong tulip odour mixed with smoke in the air.

I staggered back into the kitchen, wading through a half a foot of water (I'd left the tap on) to find my important notes for the essay floating down the hall, now they were impossible to read.

Mum came in the door. When she saw the kitchen she dropped her shopping. "What happened?" she asked.

A FAMOUS PEBBLE

*The sun is dead,
Because it has just set behind Mt. Olga
It makes a pink effect on the clouds
Which is lying motionless in the sky
A low buzz is in the air
As the impatient tourists keenly look at...
Ayers Rock, Yes, that famous pebble in the desert.
Bush and desert cover the terrain around it.
But when the sun sets,
the rock turns into a browny red colour
then into a fabulous brown, changing all the time, never staying one colour
But maybe the best colour, the most fascinating,
Is when it is a deep purple
It's beautiful at night.
Never moving, still...
Just sitting on the desert plain.*

THE PIONEERS

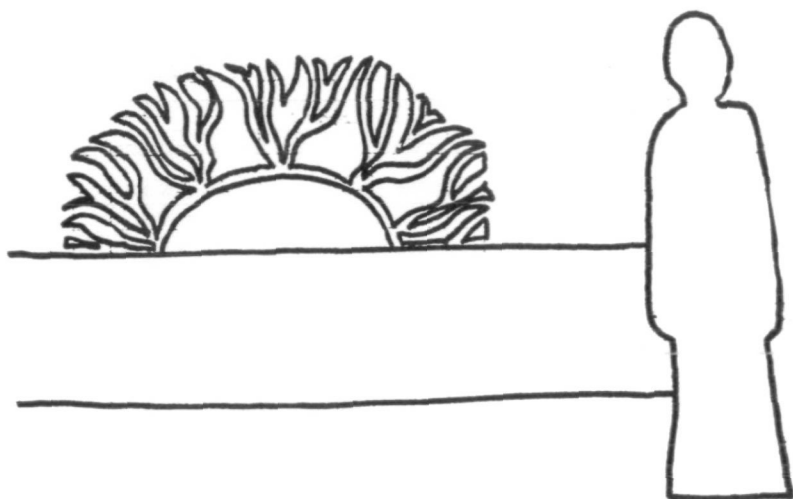

Back in the early fifties
Dim through the misty years
By the bush grown strand of a wild strange land we entered, the pioneers.

Camped in a leaky tent
from sea to view of mountains blue where the eager diggers went.

UNION RULES

The truck pulled up and two men dressed in overalls climbed down from the truck's cabin. They walked around to the back and were just about to unload their truck when another car pulled up and a man dressed in a suit sprang out and called to them to stop. "According to rule 21, paragraph 81, section 4 of the Union rule book" he said, "At least four men must be present before any equipment can be unloaded from a truck or other similar vehicle". and after looking about he added "And there only seems to be three of you here so we'll have to wait until someone else arrives". The two men looked at each other then at the toolbox in the back of the truck, shrugged their shoulders and sat down. Again the Union representative instructed them, "According to rule 118, para. 3 section 2, no worker may sit on any ground within ten metres of the work site". The two men looked at him in silence for a few seconds then slowly climbed to their feet and sat down on somebody's lawn, ten metres from the work site and waited. About thirty minutes passed before the fourth man arrived.

They were just about to take the tool box off the truck however, when they were advised by the Union representative that "according to rule 36, para.14 section 4 of the rule book a ten minute break is allowed after every forty minutes of time has passed since the commencement of work." This seemed a good idea to all of them. So they moved ten metres away (rule 118, para. 3 section 2) and sat down for a tea break. After their ten minute break they took another five minute break which was their privilege under rule 5, para. 18, section 31, to digest what they had just eaten and drunk.

By this time a number of dark clouds had appeared overhead and so according to rule 6, para. 92, section 5, and the Union representative they had to be issued with suitable wet weather protection before work could be continued. It took another thirty minutes for this clothing to arrive and when it did, it had already started to rain so they couldn't do any work anyway. This was another condition under rule 27, para. 26, section 5 which stated that, "No work could be done if weather conditions prevented normal work to proceed." By now of course, it was time for lunch anyway but seeing that it was raining and they couldn't eat their lunch in the open under rule 19, para. 15 section 2, they could, "Add their lunch break time of 45 minutes to the time when the rain stopped and use this as another break. The Union Representative also added that, "If rain continued to fall over an hour while a job was in progress then that job was to be abandoned and if it was less than three hours before the end of the day's work another job could not be started (rule 9, para 43, section 5)." So the truck was driven ten metres from the work site and they waited over an hour in the truck while the rain poured down. When this hour had passed and after adding their 45 minute break they found that it was less than three hours before the end of the day's work which was 5 o'clock. So they abandoned the job and drove off back to the depot after another normal day's work.

The Thoughts of a Long Distance Truck Driver

"Morning all, I'm Ken Rogers, this is the K2 breakfast show. Currently it's 5 ° in the city and fine is forecast for Tuesday June twenty-two. We now have ten and a half minutes after five".

Jack straightened up behind the wheel. He sighed and wound down his driving window, to de-mist it, then re-set his gaze once more on the broken white lines which flicked past his right front wheel. Bloody cold he thought. His eyes registered the speed limit on the red post by the road. Ease off on the pedal mate. Hello! Looks like another hawk up there. What a life, suspended in the blue. Watch the road nature boy, don't want to run into any more sheep. That was a nice old mess - must be almost a year ago now. Ah one in four gradient, slip her down a cog.

Cripes it's a job to keep this thing going. Ought to be a taxi driver. Wonder if I get my fortnight when I'm through with this load? Better pick up some time now, never mind about the holidays. Stuck for an hour and a half behind that ruddy tourist bus. You'd think the fella might have let me through....What's this idiot D.J. playing? Calls it music! Must be something somewhere...

"And a very good morning to you all. It'd old Whacko Smith with music to eat your weeties by. Right now it's 6 ° in the city and fine is forecast for Tuesday June twenty-two. We have thirty-nine minutes after five..." Struth! They must all be made in the same factory. Wonder what he gets paid for jabbering into the microphone for a few hours a day? Hey, watch it! Woman driver. What does she think she's doing? You can't pass here lady. Winding road...40 k.p.h. Doesn't she think I know she's there? Double white line. Around to the left. Nasty bit of road here. Caution loos...what? Shoulders. Wasn't this where young Jim came a cropper? Sometime last year...nearly lost a leg too.

"How would you like to win a Pacific Cruise for two on board one of P and O's new luxury..." Yeah, not half I wouldn't. "All you have to do is write to us..." Oh, lay off the horn lady, I'm trying to listen. "Favourite personality..." what's she think she's doing? "In no more than twenty words..." Get back you fool, you can't pass me on a bend. "Winners will be notified by mail..." Truck Bay ahead. There's no room. Better pull over. "No correspondence will be entered..." Keep your hair on. Flash your lights, do something. God! if anything comes round this corner...Put your foot down and drag here! Truck Bay ahead.

"Good morning, this is..." Here she comes. Ease off and let her pass. "Traffic warning for south-bound..." Pull over and hang on! What the hell do you think you're doing? Hold the wheel...loose gravel, on the side! "We have ten minutes before six..." Oh shut up! Moron...phew! Way Side Service 2 Miles...ah! could do with a coffee. Another coat of paint on my door and she'd have had it...serve her right though. "Hoover was here". Wonder if the wife's got her new washer yet? "It's six o'clock. The Ruse

Typewriters casually chatting,
Feet scuffing across polished floors,
Incessant and irrelevant gibbering,
Doors with glass slamming and shutting.
Secretaries wafting obsoletely around,
Office boys being prime nuisances.
Waste-paper baskets slowly filling.
Work pouring in unheeded.
People continually procrastinating.
Suddenly, an awesome figure appears;
The Boss!
Disinterred people scramble to positions,
While the pompous being moves silently around,
Work is resumed in an obsequious manner.
Everybody becomes unusually resourceful,
Office boys become quickly indispensable.
The Oppressor leaves,
The ruse ends.

SUNSET

The lonely man sat at the mouth of the cave. He was old, older than he should have been, with a face as wrinkled as a piece of crumpled newspaper. His ribs stuck out among the folds of his tanned skin. Pus-filled boils as large as small apples covered him from head to toe and most of his stringy gray hair had fallen out. A small ragged sheet was all that prevented him from feeling the full chill of the evening breeze.

A magnificent sunset filled the western sky. Reds and greens and blue and oranges and purples chased each other around the slowly setting solar disc. Several slow black clouds moved sluggishly above the fiery red ball whose last rays illuminated the desolate scene below.

A large oil slick washed around on the grey sea. Its edges coloured the once white sand and rocked the bodies of the dead, and dying birds and fish. Some white skeletons of trees stood watch over the blackened grass, covered with the slowly decaying plastic bags and steel cars that man had once found so popular. Several rusting car hulks, peeling paint with every gust of wind, lay alongside the cracked bitumenous mass that had once been a road. A cluster of crumbling buildings lay among a mass of splintered glass, broken bricks and rotting chips of wood. Near them a tall steel smokestack pointed neavenwards, an eternal monument to man's pollution of his home world.

As the man watched, his face suddenly knitted itself into contortions of pain. For perhaps five seconds the bony fingers clutched his ribs. Then silently he fell forwards.

Almost on the brink of the northern ice pack, the dolphin school pack swam. The leader of the pack noticed the oil slick stretching barrierlike across the sea, and signalled to the rest of the school to turn. They obeyed and made a long sweeping right wheel, punctuated in the middle by a simultaneous leap for air. They swam off into the sunset, breaking the gleaming pattern of sun capped waves with their splashing.

Unknown to them, the atomic waste dump was right underneath where they swam. Over the years, the lead packaging had worn, exposing each dolphin to a dose of the mutating radiation. Most of the dolphins were not hit in any vital areas. But one female was. The radiation triggered one solitary gene. In that instant, a new species was born. The odds against this chance hit were stupendous. But it happened. The dolphin was on the road again; the long upward road which would eventually lead out of the water. Man would return.

THE BULLFIGHT

The air stands still,
The tension numbs the senses,
The sea of faces move as one;
As the combatants enter the arena.

Man and beast free each other,
To begin a battle of strength and wits
The massive beast moves with strength renewed
The man with speed and grace.
For they know that one of them must die,
to please that sea of shouting faces.
The bull is driven by anger and hatred,
The man by his fear of death.
Death in the guise of a black, two horned demon.
the dance of death continues,
Pass after pass, "ole" after "ole"
A seemingly eternity to the man.

And then the cry for death,
The horsemen make their appearance
Like heralds of death
And men come cautiously forward
To place the tiny spears of pain in the beast's back.
And now the moment comes to please the crowd,
That endless sea of screaming faces,
The bull begins his final charge
The man grips his sword.
The world seems to blur into meaninglessness
And this day fate decrees a death
A body falls bleeding to the ground
But this day it is not the bull who has died rather the man who has opened the portals of death.

THINKING TIME

*Stars winking through branches poised:
The Eucalyptus air rustling past,
Past fire and friends — a dark,
peaceful,
Australian night.*

*Nearby, a friend stirs,
turns,
and descends to sleep,
his deformed shape manufactured by the flickering flames of the dying fire
You are with others, and yet mercifully alone —
Thinking time, unfairly yours
But yours to take
You take it, plunge into it waiting
Waiting for thoughts that can't come
When others, or daylight, Disturb.*

*The fire falls
A stick sinks and the flames leap - soon to die again -
like thinking-time, at night time,
Unfairly yours, but yours to take.*

POETIC JUSTICE

*We all measure
Everything out
And give some definition
Then we equivocate
And Evaluate
Ourselves to its conception
From space to time
Earth, fire and water
In the kilometer, tonne and litre
Of all the fools
Who walk this world
A poet alone is free to change his meter.*

DRAMA

*Let us take off this
Veneer thin guise of sanity
This tragic mask we Wear in a comedy
And expose our weary faces
To the air.*

CLOCK-IN MAN

*Hey Mister! What do you know about your life
Just where has it got you to?
You've fallen into the pit of Middle Class
Values and aspirations
You've traded your soul and humanity
For a paper facade
You've sold your mind out to what
They want you to think
And Christ it makes me sad because
I could be just like you
Sundays drive
Mondays work
Tuesdays work
Wednesdays work
Thursdays work
Fridays work
Saturdays drink
You're sitting on a merry-go-round
And you just can't get off
Do you and the wife even take time off
To make love anymore?
too late to change' the wall in your head
Is double-brick.
But it's not too late for me
I won't be just like you.*

DANS LA RUE

Il y avait
un accident
dans la rue,
il y avait
des gens, du sang
partout,
il y avait
la police
et ses carnets,
il y avait
des voitures passantes,
moi, j'ai passé devant
pas attendant, car apres tout
je connaissais pas les morts
et je m'en fous
j'en suis a bout
j'en ai tout lu.

Il y avait
un accident
dans la rue:
je ne l'ai pas vu
mais j'ai attendu:
j'étais a' bout...

IMPROVING KOORINGAL

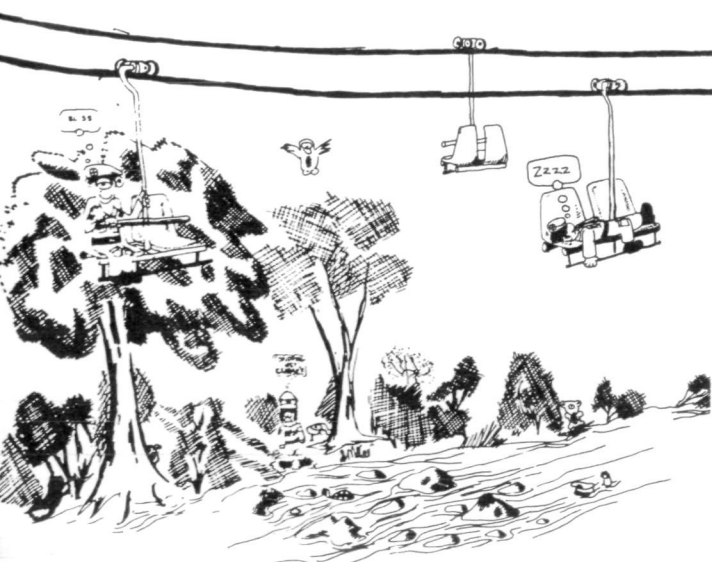

"Any Ideas?" we asked.

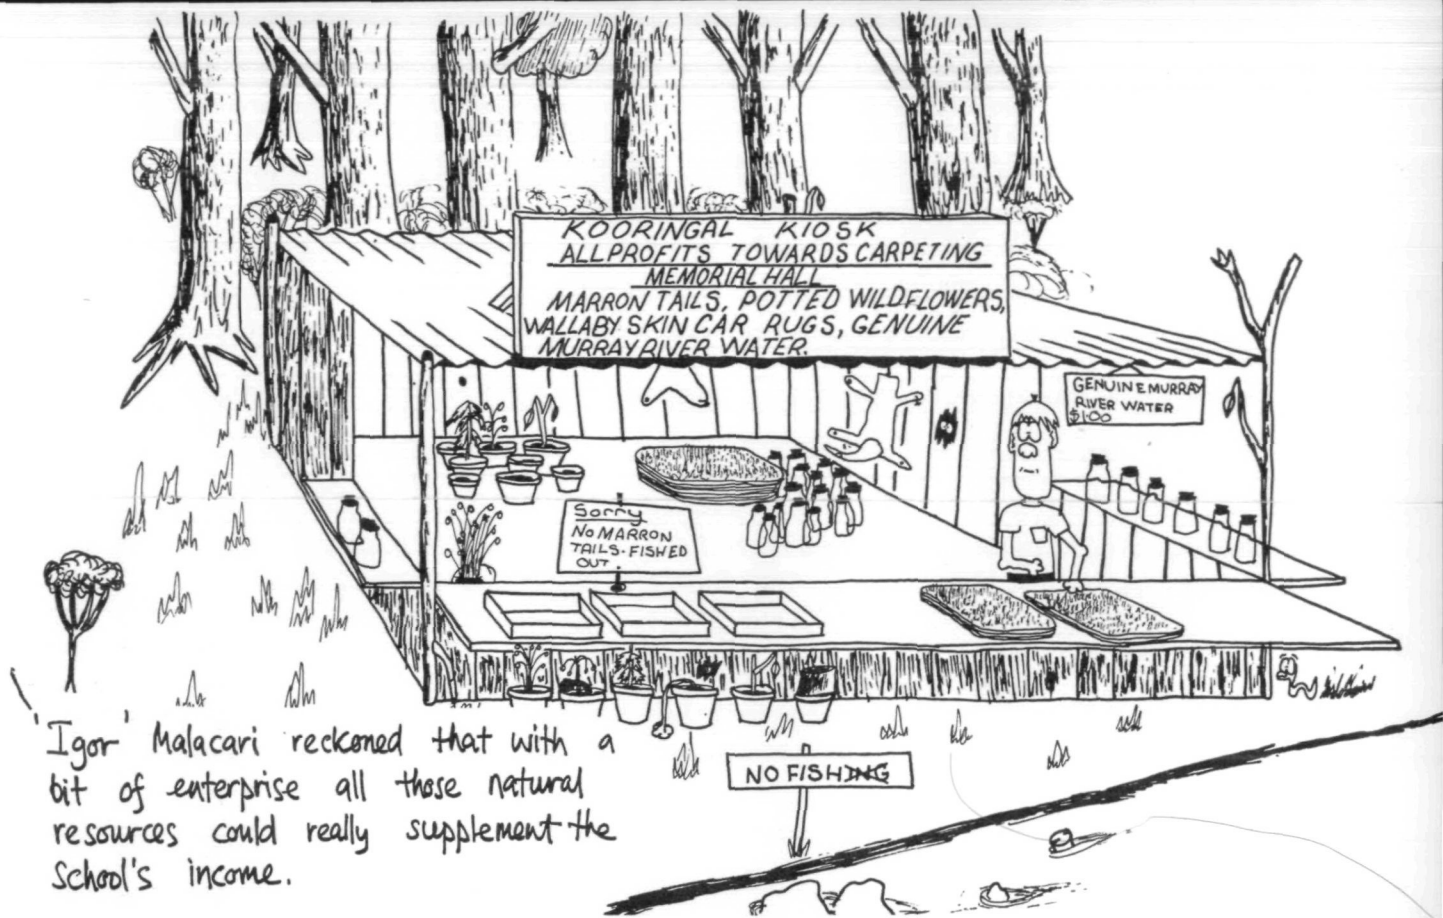

Richard Gunning thought the whole idea of sending kids down there to work was wrong anyway. How about a student rest centre?

Acting Blank File, Steve Miller, fresh from the nursery slope at Perisher, had a brilliant idea to save the poor guys in the Adventure Unit from getting wet crossing that rotten river.

Miller also had a friend in the estate agency business who could improve the place no end.

'Igor' Malacari reckoned that with a bit of enterprise all those natural resources could really supplement the School's income.

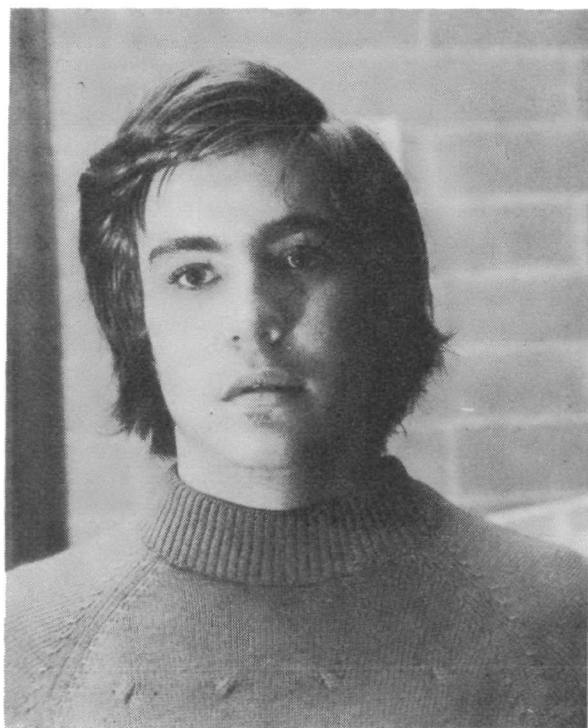

Gunning agreed, but thought we shouldn't do things by halves.

HOCKEY : W.A. HOCKEY ASSOCIATION CUP 1976

Wesley 0 - 6

After a very even first half the superior skill of Wesley showed.

Aquinas 2 - 4

An improved team performance over last week - especially forwards.

Hale 2 - 1

A well deserved win — showed team's determination to improve.

Trinity 1 - 0

A determined well disciplined team effort. The team is showing improved ball control.

Scotch 1 - 4

A disappointing effort. We are capable of far better.

Guildford 2 - 0

An excellent first half with all players contributing. Our skill and precision waned in the second half.

FINALS

Trinity 2 - 1

An excellent performance by the whole team. We deserve to be playing off for 3rd position (Bronze) this week.

Wesley 0 - 4

After an excellent first half when the team played extremely well, the rain came down and all coherent team play was impossible. A fine effort to finish 4th in the competition.

TENNIS : THE CORR CUP 1976

WESLEY 2 1/2 rubbers to 9 1/2
Melsom & Wall played particularly well singles taking care with fundamental stroke making. Boyle & Matthews combined well for 1 set in doubles and then lost concentration.

HALE 1 rubber to 11
Matthews won his singles. Annear lost his in a close match. All other single and doubles were lost by a big margin.

TRINITY 19 sets to 5
Matthews, Melsom and Kanther played well.

SCOTCH 11 sets to 13
A very close match. If we had won the last set we would have won the match

GUILDFORD 5 rubbers to 3
Hicks and Matthews played very well in singles. A good finish to the season.

RUGBY : THE REDMOND CUP 1976

WESLEY 13 - 8

Good start to the season

Best Players:- R. Oddie, R. Scott

AQUINAS 6 - 14

Good second half recovery but could not keep up the necessary pressure

Best Players:- L. Scott, L. McMahon, G. Nash, D. Lynn

HALE 4 - 25

We led 4 - 3 at half time but then the better Hale side started to take control

Best Players:- B. Rillstone, R. Oddie, L. McMahon

TRINITY 34 - 10

Rillstone scored 22 points, while Battersby shows some supremacy

Best Players:- S. Walsh, B. Rillstone, L. Scott, J. Battersby

SCOTCH 0 - 12

The only side to hold Scotch try-less all season. They scored 4 penalty goals near the posts.

Best Players:- Everyone played well

GUILDFORD 3 - 8

Perhaps our worst performance of the season. We never got out of first gear

Best Players:- B. Rillstone

AQUINAS 14 - 18

What a match! They scored a disputed try, we ended up losing by 4 points and Battersby injured in first half

Best Players:- Good effort by all

WESLEY 0 - 6

What a day! Poured throughout the whole, Oddie injured early in match and we had most of the play but we just couldn't score

Best Players:- Desperate effort by all
